The Historians Workshop:

The Historian's Workshop Lewis Perry Curtis,1970 The Historian's Workshop L. Perry Curtis (Jr.),1970

1983 World History Workshop Frederick C. Matusiak,1984 This report contains the ideas of participants in the 1983 World History Workshop sponsored by the U S Air Force Academy s Department of History 13 15 July 1983 The various articles discuss the current state of world history programs at the secondary and undergraduate levels and examine different approaches to teaching world history Topics include Liberal education Military education Undergraduate education Survey courses USAF Academy Service academy and Core curriculum Routledge Revivals: History Workshop Series Various Authors,2022-07-30 First published between 1975 and 1991 this set reissues 13 volumes that originally appeared as part of the History Workshop Series This series of books which grew out of the journal of the same name advocated history from below and examined numerous often social issues from the perspectives of ordinary people In the words of founder Raphael Samuel the aim was to turn historical research and writing into a collaborative enterprise via public gatherings outside of a traditional academic setting that could be used to support activism and social justice as well as informing politics Some of the topics examined in the set include mineral workers rural radicalism and the lives and occupations of villagers in the nineteenth century working class association the development of left wing workers theatre and the changing attitudes to mass culture across the twentieth century the changing fortunes of the East End at the turn of the century the position of women from the nineteenth century to the present the miners strike of 1984 5 the social and political images of late twentieth century London and a three volume analysis of the myriad facets of English patriotism This set will be of interest to students of history sociology gender and politics Marxism and the History of Art Andrew Hemingway,2006-07-20 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to Marxist approaches to art history Although the aesthetic was a crucial part of Marx and Engels s thought they left no full statement on the arts Although there is an abundant scholarship on Marxist approaches to literature the historiography of the visual arts has been largely neglected This book encompasses a range of influential thinkers and historians including William Morris Mikhail Lifshits Frederick Antal Francis Klingender Max Raphael Meyer Schapiro Walter Benjamin Henri Lefebvre and Arnold Hauser It also addresses the heritage of the New Left In the spirit of Marxism the authors interpret the achievements and limitations of Marxist art history in relation to the historical and political circumstances of its production providing an indispensable introduction to contemporary radical practices in the field Proceedings of the Fire History Workshop, October 20-24, 1980, Tucson, Arizona ,1980 The purpose of the workshop was to exchange information on sampling procedures research methodologies preparation and interpretation of specimen material terminology and the application and significance of findings emphasizing the relationship of dendrochronology procedures to fire history interpretations The Histories of Raphael Samuel Sophie Scott-Brown,2017-05-12 In the first integrated biographical study of his work this book situates British historian Raphael

Samuel 1934 1996 in relation to his distinctive form of activist politics as they developed from youthful Cold War communism to the first British New Left 1960s radicalism to the 1980s history wars As the catalyst behind the History Workshop movement Samuel championed the democratisation of history making and practised an eclectic form of people s history in his own work His unique approach was controversial drawing impassioned responses from across the ideological spectrum the most sustained critique often coming from his left wing contemporaries It is argued here that this compelling figure has been unjustly neglected and that he continues to offer important insights into the politics of history making in a post Marxist world

Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio s Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio s Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University History after Apartheid

Annie E. Coombes, 2003-11-24 How should post apartheid South Africa present its history in museums monuments and parks

The Oxford History of Historical Writing Axel Schneider, Daniel Woolf, 2011-05-05 The fifth volume of The Oxford History of Historical Writing offers essays by leading scholars on the writing of history globally since 1945 Divided into two parts part one selects and surveys theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches to history and part two examines select national and regional historiographies throughout the world It aims at once to provide an authoritative survey of the field and to provoke cross cultural comparisons This is chronologically the last of five volumes in a series that explores representations of the past across the globe from the beginning of writing to the present day
