Smith, 2004-07-08 A guide to historical literature on England between 1760 and 1837 emphasising more recent work Limited Livelihoods Sonya O. Rose, 2003-09-02 Integrating analytical tools from feminist theory cultural studies and sociology to illuminate detailed historical evidence Sonya Rose argues that gender was a central organizing principle of the nineteenth century industrial transformation in England She elaborates a cultural theory of gender that suggests why it is an inherent aspect of all social and economic relations Analysing employer strategies and state policies and the role of work in family life she demonstrates that neither industrial transformation nor class relations can be understood when reduced to gender neutral and abstract forces The politics of hunger Carl J. Griffin, 2020-02-18 The 1840s witnessed widespread hunger and malnutrition at home and mass starvation in Ireland And yet the aptly named Hungry 40s came amidst claims that notwithstanding Malthusian prophecies absolute biological want had been eliminated in England The eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries were supposedly the period in which the threat of famine lifted for the peoples of England But hunger remained in the words of Marx an unremitted pressure The politics of hunger offers the first systematic analysis of the ways in which hunger continued to be experienced and feared both as a lived and constant spectral presence It also examines how hunger was increasingly used as a disciplining device in new modes of governing the population Drawing upon a rich archive this innovative and conceptually sophisticated study throws new light on how hunger persisted as a political and biological force A Quest for Time Gary Cross, 2022-08-19 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice
