The Kidnapped Saint & Other Stories B. Traven, 1975 Insight into the secretive author's revolutionary journalistic career in wartime Germany and close relationship with the Mexican Indians and mestizos is provided through short stories and a selection from his novel The Kidnapped Saint and Other Stories B. Traven, Mina C. Klein, 1975 The Kidnapped Saint & Other Stories B. Traven, 1975 Insight into the secretive author's revolutionary journalistic career in wartime Germany and close relationship with the Mexican Indians and mestizos is provided through short stories and a selection from his novel The Man Nobody Knows Roy Pateman, 2005-01-05 In this book Roy Pateman provides the most reader friendly up to date biography of B Traven an enigmatic writer whose readership spread across broader class race and language divides more than anyone else writing during the twentieth century This unconventional biography discusses Traven's alternative histories followed by an attempt to find out the major influences of this elusive man Pateman addresses Traven's politics his life of humanist anarchism and discusses all of his works in English and German emphasizing The Death Ship The Treasure of the Sierra Madre and the Jungle Sextet Also included is a chronology of Traven's life which is fuller than that found in any other study The book ends with a modest solution to the intractable problem of who Traven really was and where he was born and raised A Study of B. Traven's Fiction Richard Eugene Mezo, 1993 B. Traven Edward N. Treverton, 1999 One of the most mysterious of authors B Traven spent his early life in Germany as an actor and anarchist publisher using the name of Ret Marut then emerged in Mexico as B Traven a literary champion of the proletariat This work examines his career through the production of his 16 books twelve novels two novellas a work of nonfiction and a collection of short stories to the production of the movie The Treasures of the Sierra Madre where he emerged this time as Hal Croves The bibliography with 140 illustrations and 1200 entries provides information on the publication of over a thousand editions of Traven's books For the first time information on the states and issues of many editions including first editions published in Germany between 1926 and 1960 is provided Includes an illustrated descriptive bibliography of all of the American and British first editions An essential tool for collectors book dealers and librarians Infernal Paradise Ronald G. Walker, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1978 Listening to the Page Alan Cheuse, 2002-09-25 When he sold his first short story to The New Yorker in 1979 Alan Cheuse was hardly new to the literary world He had studied at Rutgers under John Ciardi worked at the Breadloaf Writing Workshops with Robert Frost and Ralph Ellison written hundreds of reviews for Kirkus Reviews and taught alongside John Gardner and Bernard Malamud at Bennington College for nearly a decade Soon after the New Yorker story appeared Cheuse wrote a freelance magazine piece about a new publicly funded broadcast network called National Public Radio and a relationship of reviewer and radio was born In Listening to the Page Alan Cheuse takes a look back at some of the thousands of books he has read reviewed and loved offering retrospective pieces on modern American literary figures such as Hemingway Thomas Wolfe Bernard Malamud and John Steinbeck as well as contemporary writers like Elizabeth Tallent and Vassily Aksyonov Other essays explore landscape in All the Pretty Horses the career of James Agee Mario Vargas Llosa and naturalism and the life and work of Robert Penn Warren Exploring the Interior Karl S. Guthke, 2018-05-24 In this fascinating collection of essays Harvard Emeritus Professor Karl S Guthke examines the ways in which for European scholars and writers of the eighteenth and early nineteenth century world wide geographical exploration led to an exploration of the self Guthke explains how in the age of Enlightenment and beyond intellectual developments were fuelled by excitement about what Ulrich Im Hof called the grand opening up of the wide world especially of the interior of the non European continents This outward turn was complemented by a fascination with the world within as anthropology and ethnology focused on the humanity of the indigenous populations of far away lands an interest in human nature that suggested a way for Europeans to understand themselves encapsulated in Gauguin's Tahitian rumination What are we The essays in the first half of the book discuss first or second hand physical or mental encounters with the exotic lands and populations beyond the supposed cradle of civilisation The works of literature and documents of cultural life featured in these essays bear testimony to the crossing not only of geographical ethnological and cultural borders but also of borders of a variety of intellectual activities and interests The second section examines the growing interest in astronomy and the engagement with imagined worlds in the universe again with a view to understanding homo sapiens as compared now to the extra terrestrials that were confidently assumed to exist The final group of essays focuses on the exploration of the landscape of what was called the universe within featuring among a variety of other texts Schiller's plays The Maid of Orleans and William Tell these essays observe and analyse what Erich Heller termed The Artist's Journey into the Interior This collection which travels from the interior of continents to the interior of the mind is itself a set of explorations that revel in the discovery of what was half hidden in language Written by a scholar of international repute it is eye opening reading for all those with an interest in the literary and cultural history of and since the Enlightenment

Where the Wild Books Are Jim Dwyer, 2010-04-01 As interest in environmental issues grows many writers of fiction have embraced themes that explore the connections between humans and the natural world Ecologically themed fiction ranges from profound philosophical meditations to action packed entertainments Where the Wild Books Are offers an overview of nearly 2 000 works of nature oriented fiction The author includes a discussion of the precursors and history of the genre and of its expansion since the 1970s He also considers its forms and themes as well as the subgenres into which it has evolved such as speculative fiction ecodefense animal stories mysteries ecofeminist novels cautionary tales and others A brief summary and critical commentary of each title is included Dwyer's scope is broad and covers fiction by Native American writers as well as ecofiction from writers around the world Far more than a mere listing of books Where the Wild Books Are is a lively introduction to a vast universe of engaging provocative writing It can be used to develop book collections or curricula It also serves as an introduction to one of the most fertile areas of contemporary fiction presenting books that will offer enjoyable reading and new insights into the vexing environmental questions of our time

Yearbook of Comparative and General Literature ,1974 The Lady in the Van and Other Stories Alan Bennett,2024-05-01 Now a major motion picture starring Maggie Smith Bennett's famous and heartwarming story The Lady in the Van and more of his classic short form work Alan Bennett has long been one of the world's most revered humorists From his acclaimed story collection Smut to his hilarious and sharply observed The Uncommon Reader Bennett has consistently remained one of literature's most acute observers of Britain and life's many absurdities In this new collection drawn from his wide ranging career you ll read some of Bennett s finest work including the title story the basis for a new feature film starring Maggie Smith The book also includes the rollicking comic masterpiece The Laying on of Hands and the bittersweet Father Father Burning Bright Bennett s classic tale of the tense relationship between a man and his dying father A prose stylist of disarming grace and humor The New York Times Book Review Bennett s genius is for the imploding situation in which a cleverly made house of cards shudders and comes down the comments of his characters as they nimbly pick their way around the wreckage verge on aphorism The New Yorker In the hands of Alan Bennett the tragic and painful are close bedfellows with the funny and the sexual making for a collection of stories in which we laugh at the situations presented and then feel a twinge of guilt Los Angeles Times Catalog of Copyright Entries.
