The Lanes Of Limerick:

The lanes of Limerick John Williams, 1999 Angela's Ashes Frank McCourt, 1998-12-17 A Pulitzer Prize winning 1 New York Times bestseller Angela's Ashes is Frank McCourt's masterful memoir of his childhood in Ireland now with a new introduction by Patrick Radden Keefe When I look back on my childhood I wonder how I managed to survive at all It was of course a miserable childhood the happy childhood is hardly worth your while Worse than the ordinary miserable childhood is the miserable Irish childhood and worse yet is the miserable Irish Catholic childhood So begins the luminous memoir of Frank McCourt born in Depression era Brooklyn to recent Irish immigrants and raised in the slums of Limerick Ireland Frank's mother Angela has no money to feed the children since Frank's father Malachy rarely works and when he does he drinks his wages Yet Malachy exasperating irresponsible and beguiling does nurture in Frank an appetite for the one thing he can provide a story Frank lives for his father's tales of Cuchulain who saved Ireland and of the Angel on the Seventh Step who brings his mother babies Perhaps it is story that accounts for Frank's survival Wearing rags for diapers begging a pig's head for Christmas dinner and gathering coal from the roadside to light a fire Frank endures poverty near starvation and the casual cruelty of relatives and neighbors yet lives to tell his tale with eloquence exuberance and remarkable forgiveness Angela's Ashes imbued on every page with Frank McCourt's astounding humor and compassion is a glorious book that bears all the marks of a classic

My Life In Pieces—Writers, Rogues, The Road and The Rock Ambrose Clancy, 2024-12-30 In the foreword to this collection Robert Lipsyte writes that Ambrose Clancy can uncoil a sentence like a silken rope snap it like a whip tie up a complicated thought He can write long he can write short he can build a case he can murmur a spooky tale In a career spanning four decades Clancy's feature writing for major publications including GQ The Washington Post and the Los Angeles Times has profiled legendary writers politicians and other rogues brought sharp eyed views of Ireland Venice London Amsterdam Frank McCourt's Limerick the New York of Harlem Queens and the Lower East Side spent time with a Belfast prize fighter during The Troubles and hiked a remote peninsula in Greece to stay in mountain monasteries Clancy covers everything from Monster Truck rallies to a Long Island Drunk Train and takes us to a small island community examining its history of slavery small town gossips an unsolved homicide and people who have enchanted him along the way The New York Times reviewing an earlier work by Clancy noted his series of gripping and vividly narrated events This is a collection with a forceful narrative drive One to dip in and out of to gain cultural insights from the last 40 years by an accomplished pro one who knows the duty of a writer is to inform illuminate and just as importantly to entertain

Back to the Present, Forward to the Past International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures. Conference, 2006 The island of Ireland north and south has produced a great diversity of writing in both English and Irish for hundreds of years often using the memories embodied in its competing views of history as a fruitful source of literary inspiration Placing Irish literature in an international context these two volumes explore the connection between Irish history and literature in particular the

Rebellion of 1798 in a more comprehensive diverse and multi faceted way than has often been the case in the past The fifty three authors bring their national and personal viewpoints as well as their critical judgements to bear on Irish literature in these stimulating articles The contributions also deal with topics such as Gothic literature ideology and identity as well as gender issues connections with the other arts regional Irish literature in particular that of the city of Limerick translations the works of Joyce and comparisons with the literature of other nations The contributors are all members of IASIL International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures Back to the Present Forward to the Past Irish Writing and History since 1798 will be of interest to both literary scholars and professional historians but also to the general student of Irish writing and Irish culture

Popular Catholicism in 20th-Century Ireland Síle de Cléir, 2017-10-05 For much of the 20th century Catholics in Ireland spent significant amounts of time engaged in religious activities This book documents their experience in Limerick city between the 1920s and 1960s exploring the connections between that experience and the wider culture of an expanding and modernising urban environment S le de Cl ir discusses topics including ritual activities in many contexts the church the home the school the neighbourhood and the workplace The supernatural belief underpinning these activities is also important along with creative forms of resistance to the high levels of social control exercised by the clergy in this environment De Cl ir uses a combination of in depth interviews and historical ethnographic sources to reconstruct the day to day religious experience of Limerick city people during the period studied This material is enriched by ideas drawn from anthropological studies of religion while perspectives from both history and ethnology also help to contextualise the discussion With its unique focus on everyday experience and combination of a traditional worldview with the modernising city of Limerick all set against the backdrop of a newly independent Ireland Popular Catholicism in 20th century Ireland presents a fascinating new perspective on 20th century Irish social and religious history

Teacher Man Frank McCourt,2005-11-15 Nearly a decade ago Frank McCourt became an unlikely star when at the age of sixty six he burst onto the literary scene with Angela s Ashes the Pulitzer Prize winning memoir of his childhood in Limerick Ireland Then came Tis his glorious account of his early years in New York Now here at last is McCourt s long awaited book about how his thirty year teaching career shaped his second act as a writer Teacher Man is also an urgent tribute to teachers everywhere In bold and spirited prose featuring his irreverent wit and heartbreaking honesty McCourt records the trials triumphs and surprises he faces in public high schools around New York City His methods anything but conventional McCourt creates a lasting impact on his students through imaginative assignments he instructs one class to write An Excuse Note from Adam or Eve to God singalongs featuring recipe ingredients as lyrics and field trips imagine taking twenty nine rowdy girls to a movie in Times Square McCourt struggles to find his way in the classroom and spends his evenings drinking with writers and dreaming of one day putting his own story to paper Teacher Man shows McCourt developing his unparalleled ability to tell a great story as five days a week five periods per day he works to gain the attention and respect of unruly hormonally charged or indifferent adolescents McCourt s rocky marriage his failed attempt to get a Ph D at Trinity College Dublin and his repeated firings due to his propensity to talk back to his superiors ironically lead him to New York's most prestigious school Stuyvesant High School where he finally finds a place and a voice. Doggedness he says is not as glamorous as ambition or talent or intellect or charm but still the one thing that got me through the days and nights. For McCourt storytelling itself is the source of salvation and in Teacher Man the journey to redemption and literary fame is an exhilarating adventure. A Man Called Harris Michael Sheridan, Anthony Galvin, 2013-09-01. Richard Harris was a giant who oozed charisma on screen. But off screen he was troubled and addicted to every pleasure life could offer. Coming from a repressed Irish Catholic background he was forced by a teenage illness to abandon his beloved rugby but not his macho appetites. Discovering theatre saved him. He had found his calling. Despite marrying the daughter of a peer he never tried to fit in. He was always a hell raiser to the core along with legendary buddies Richard Burton and Peter O Toole. But he was more he was a gifted poet and singer. He was an intelligent family man who took great interest in his craft a Renaissance man of the film world. Every time his excesses threatened to kill his career and himself he rose magnificently from the ashes first with an Oscar winning performance as Bull McCabe in The Field then in the Harry Potter franchise. O'Donovan from Garryowen Austin O'Donovan, 2004. A World War II memoir set in Limerick city which describes much of what I had in common with Irish American author Frank McCourt who wrote Angela's Ashes later made into a film. Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1902. History of the British Standing Army. A.D. 1660 to 1700 Clifford Walton, 1894. London Medical Gazette, 1838. Critical Essays in Honour of Mária Kurdi Zsuzsa Csikai, Andrew C. Rouse, 2018-02-02. The essays in the present volume are dedicated and written in tribute to Professor Mária Kurdi upon celebrating her 70th birthday. As a multifaceted scholar Mária is known for her enduring contribution to the wide field of literary studies her main research areas being modern American and British drama drama theory and comparative literary studies. An internationally renowned scholar of modern Irish literature and culture she is also well known for the many ways in which she has promoted Irish studies in Hungary. This is the third volume in the SPECHEL editions series.
