Six Poets Of Racial Uplift:

Six Poets of Racial Uplift Effie T. Battle, Gertrude Arquene Fisher, Myra Viola Wilds, 1996 The six poets represented in this volume wrote during the first decades of this century a period after Reconstruction and before the Harlem Renaissance when a new generation of African Americans continued the struggle against injustice violence and hypocrisy and strove for the betterment of their race The poetry of these writers while to some extent conventional even derivative is nevertheless noteworthy for what Pemberton in her introduction calls its emphatic proclamation of self worth dignity and membership in a community of upstanding and proud black people BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Racial Uplift and American Music, 1878-1943 Lawrence Schenbeck, 2012-02-03 Racial Uplift and American Music 1878 1943 traces the career of racial uplift ideology as a factor in elite African Americans embrace of classical music around the turn of the previous century from the collapse of Reconstruction to the death of composer conductor R Nathaniel Dett whose music epitomized uplift After Reconstruction many black leaders had retreated from emphasizing inalienable rights to a narrower rationale for equality and inclusion they now sought to rehabilitate the race s image by stressing class distinctions respectable middle class behavior and service to the masses Musically the black intelligentsia resorted to European models as vehicles for cultural vindication Their response to racism was to create and promote morally positive politically inoffensive art that idealized the race By incorporating black folk elements into the dignified genres of art song symphony and opera uplifters demonstrated worthiness through high achievement in acknowledged arenas Their efforts were variously opposed tolerated or supported by a range of white elites with their own notions about African American culture The resulting conversation more a stew of arguments than a dialogue occupied the pages of black newspapers and informed the work of white philanthropists Women also played crucial roles Racial Uplift and American Music 1878 1943 examines the lives and thought of personalities central to musical uplift Dett Sears CEO Julius Rosenwald author James Monroe Trotter sociologist W E B Du Bois journalist Nora Douglas Holt and others with an eye to recognizing their contributions and restoring their stature Teaching African American Women's Writing G. Wisker, 2010-09-29 The essays in Teaching African American Women s Writing provide reflections on issues problems and pleasures raised by studying the texts They will be of use to those teaching and studying African American women s writing in colleges universities and adult education groups as well as teachers involved in teaching in schools to A level Leading the Race Jacqueline M. Moore, 1999 Moore reevaluates the role of this black elite by examining how their self interest interacted with the needs of the black community in Washington D C the center of black society at the turn of the century BOOK JACKET Acquisitions List, African-American Collection University of Pittsburgh. American Poetry in Performance Tyler Hoffman, 2013-05-29 American Performance Poetry is the first book to trace a comprehensive history of performance poetry in America from Whitman through the rap meets poetry scene and to show how the performance of poetry is bound up with the performance of identity and nationality in the modern period This book will be a meaningful contribution both to the field of American poetry studies and to the fields of cultural and performance studies as it focuses on poetry that refuses the status of fixed aesthetic object and in its variability performs versions of race class gender and sexuality both on and off the page Relating the performance of poetry to shifting political and cultural ideologies in the United States Hoffman argues that the vocal aspect of public poetry possesses or has been imagined to possess the ability to help construct both national and subaltern communities In doing so American Performance Poetry explores public poets' confrontations with emergent sound recording and communications technologies as those confrontations shape their mythologies of the spoken word and their corresponding notions about America and Americanness

Contemporary Black British and African American Women Writers Jean Wyatt, Sheldon George, 2020-01-28

Contemporary African American and Black British Women Writers Narrative Race Ethics brings together British and American scholars to explore how in texts by contemporary black women writers in the U S and Britain formal narrative techniques express new understandings of race or stimulate ethical thinking about race in a reader Taken together the essays also demonstrate that black women writers from both sides of the Atlantic borrow formal structures and literary techniques from one another to describe the workings of structural racism in the daily lives of black subjects and to provoke readers to think anew about race Narratology has only recently begun to use race as a category of narrative theory This collection seeks both to show the ethical effects of narrative form on individual readers and to foster reconceptualizations of narrative theory that account for the workings of race within literature and culture Women Builders Sadie Iola

Daniel, Hallie Quinn Brown, 1997 Daniel and Brown were both educators and representatives of the tradition of racial uplift among black women in the 19th and early 20th centuries These selected works provide fascinating insight into both the social activism of the era and the lives of some inspiring and dynamic women Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Yours for Humanity JoAnn Pavletich, 2022-12-15 Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins 1859-1930 African American novelist editor journalist playwright historian and public intellectual used fiction to explore and intervene in the social racial and political challenges of her era Her particular form of cultural activism was groundbreaking for its time and continues to influence and inspire authors and scholars today This collection of essays constitutes a new phase in the full historical and literary recovery of her work JoAnn Pavletich argues that considered from the broadest of perspectives Hopkins's life work occupies itself with the critique and creation of epistemologies that control racialized knowledge and experience Whether in representations of a critical contemporary problem such as lynching imperialism or pan African unity or in representations of African American women's voices Hopkins's texts create new knowledge and new frames for understanding it The essays in this collection engage this knowledge articulating nuanced understandings of Hopkins's era and her innovative writing practices opening new doors for the next generation of Hopkins scholarship With contributions from well established Hopkins scholars such as John Gruesser editor of The Unruly Voice and Hanna Wallinger author of Pauline E Hopkins A Literary Biography the collection also includes important new scholars on Hopkins such as Elizabeth Cali Edlie Wong and others
