Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read. It explores a great variety of works, genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes, protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers. It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs. In addition to traditional genre chapters, Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction, poetry, short stories and drama, cover art, picture books, illustrated literature and graphic novels and film. It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature, they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with. The book's discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books. It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading.

Library Services to Youth of Hispanic Heritage Barbara Immroth, Kathleen de la Peña McCook, 2000-05-15 As the United States becomes ever more comfortable with recognizing the cultural diversity of the many groups that make up its population, library services must seek to meet patrons' needs as they are shaped and expressed by their cultural backgrounds. This goal is particularly important for youth library services. For young people of Hispanic heritage, library services attuned to their specific needs and interests are crucial. Many librarians struggle with how to properly create and maintain library programs and collections that are suitable to the needs of Hispanic youth. In this series of essays prepared for the Trejo Foster Foundation for Hispanic Library Education, Fourth National Institute, national leaders in librarianship present their insights about how best to meet the needs of young Hispanic library patrons. The text is introduced by the editors and the essays are arranged in parts: Programs, Collections, Planning and Evaluating, Bibliographical Resources and For the Future. Information about the contributors and an index conclude the volume.
