This collection encompasses over fifty works including captivating adventure narratives, thrilling pirate tales, and poignant historical novels enriched with illustrations that augment the reading experience. Defoe's prose is characterized by its vivid detail and a deep understanding of human nature, reflecting the socio-political climate of the early 18th century. Through travel sketches and essays, he intertwines personal experience with broader historical contexts, offering a multifaceted view of his time while inviting readers into his imaginative worlds. Daniel Defoe, a pioneer of the English novel, draws heavily on his own diverse life experiences, from being a merchant and journalist to facing imprisonment for his political writings. His keen observations of society, combined with an adventurous spirit, likely inspired the tales of resilience and exploration found in this collection. Defoe's background in commercial ventures and political activism amplifies the realism and depth of his characters, who navigate both personal and collective struggles in a rapidly changing world. This extensive collection is an essential read for scholars and enthusiasts of classic literature alike, offering modern readers unique insights into early 18th-century England. Defoe's timeless themes of adventure, survival, and moral integrity remain relevant, making this anthology a valuable addition to any literary library. Dive into Defoe's world and discover the narratives that have influenced generations of storytellers.

The Modern British drama, 1811      A Treatise Explanatory of a New System of Naval, Military and Political Telegraphic Communication of General Application John Macdonald, 1817      Essence and Existence Bob Hale, 2020 Essays on Existence and Essence presents a series of writings including several previously unpublished by Bob Hale on the topics of ontology and modality. The essays develop and elucidate Hale's work on essence, truthmakers, and several other topics. Also included are an introduction by Kit Fine and a bibliography of Hale's work.      From Door to Door James Sherman, 2005 A heartwarming, bittersweet comedy about three generations of American women. Mary Goodman, a woman of the greatest generation, is mourning the loss of her husband. Her daughter Deborah is encouraging her to end her period of mourning and move on with a new independence. In a series of scenes between Mary, Deborah, and Mary's mother Bessie, Mary reflects back on her life as a daughter, wife, and mother. A trio of actresses plays the three women over the course of sixty-five years. As Mary's life progresses from childhood to matrimony to motherhood, we see how each successive generation of women lives up to the expectations of the past and makes brave new choices about the future. At the end of the play, the three women stand as links in a chain made of faith, love, and understanding.      Letters from James, Earl of Perth, Lord Chancellor of Scotland &c., to His Sister, the Countess of Erroll James Drummond Earl of Perth, 1845      Works of the Camden Society, 1845
