Thinking Outside the Box Gary R. Edgerton,Brian Geoffrey Rose,2005-01-01 Thinking Outside the Box brings together some of the best and most challenging scholarship about TV genres exploring their genesis their functions and development and the interaction of disparate genres The authors argue that genre is a process rather than a static category and that it signifies much about the people who produce and watch the shows. In addition to considering traditional genres such as sitcoms, soap operas, and talk shows, the contributors explore new hybrids including reality programs, teen-oriented science fiction, and quality dramas, and examine how many of these shows have taken on a global reach. Identifying historical continuities and envisioning possible trends, this is the richest and most current study of how television genres form, operate, and change.

Medicine's Moving Pictures Leslie J. Reagan, Nancy Tomes, Paula A. Treichler, 2007. Original essays by leading media scholars and historians of medicine that explore the rich history of health-related films. This groundbreaking book argues that health and medical media, with their unique goals and production values, constitute a rich cultural and historical archive and deserve greater scholarly attention. Original essays by leading media scholars and historians of medicine demonstrate that Americans throughout the twentieth century have learned about health, disease, medicine, and the human body from movies. Heroic doctors and patients fighting dread diseases have thrilled and moved audiences everywhere. Amid changing media formats, medicine's moving pictures continue to educate, entertain, and help us understand the body's journey through life. Perennially popular health and medical media are also complex texts reflecting many interests and constituencies, including notably the U.S. medical profession, which has often sought if not always successfully to influence content, circulation, and meaning. Medicine's Moving Pictures makes clear that health and medical media representations are more than illustrations; they show their power to shape health perceptions, practices, and policies and identifies their social, cultural, and historical contexts. Contributors: Lisa Cartwright, Vanessa Northington, Gamble Rachel, Gans Boriskin, Valerie Hartouni, Susan E. Lederer, John Parascandola, Martin S. Pernick, Leslie J. Reagan, Naomi Rogers, Nancy Tomes, Paula A. Treichler, Joseph Turow. Leslie J. Reagan is an Associate Professor at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. Nancy Tomes is a Professor at Stony Brook University. Paula A. Treichler is a Professor at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

The Changing Portrayal of Adolescents in the Media Since 1950 Patrick Jamieson, Daniel Romer, 2008-07-22. Scholars analyze the emergence of youth culture in music and powerful trends in gender and ethnic/racial representation, sexuality, substance use, and violence in the media in this text.
