message touched a nerve for women and men alike becoming much more than a commercial as it became an icon for women's empowerment. The ad was selected by Forbes as one of the 10 most influential campaigns of the decade. In the commercial, while a young girl understands the phrase "run like a girl" to mean run as fast as you can somewhere along the way, doing things like a girl becomes an insult. The goal of the commercial was to change the meaning of words and reclaim the phrase to simply mean be proud of who you are. With Dalia's new book, it is time to reclaim that phrase once again and this time in the world of leadership. It's time to stop asking our women leaders to lead like men and instead start learning from what is working for our women leaders and share that wisdom with everyone, men and women alike. Lead Like a Girl is a provocative call to action to all leaders to stop wearing an emotional mask at work and connect to their more feminine leadership traits: owning their passion, perseverance, people skills, and positivity. With her flare for relatable storytelling, Dalia shares her executive leadership journey of over two decades, backed by theoretical underpinning from the world of psychology, business, and mindfulness, to encourage leaders to connect to their more feminine superpowers, be courageous, lead from their heart, and lead more like a girl.
