Music and the Play of Power in the Middle East, North Africa and Central Asia Dr Laudan Nooshin, 2013-01-28 What is it about the history geographical position and cultures of the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia that has made music such a potent and powerful agent This volume presents the first direct look at the complex relationship between music and power across a range of musical genres and countries Discourses of power in the region centre on some of the most contested social issues most notably in relation to nationhood gender and religion Individual chapters examine the ways in which music serves as a forum for playing out issues of power ideology resistance and subversion How does music become a space for promoting or conversely resisting or subverting particular ideologies or positions of authority How does it accrue symbolic power in ways that are very particular perhaps unique And how does music become a site of social control or alternatively a vehicle for agency and empowerment at times overt and at others highly subtle What is it about music that facilitates and sometimes disrupts the exercise and flows of power Who controls such flows how and for what purposes In asking such questions in the context of countries such as Afghanistan Egypt Iran Tunisia and Tajikistan the book draws on a wide range of relevant theoretical and critical ideas and many disciplines including ethnomusicology anthropology sociology politics Middle Eastern studies globalization studies gender studies and cultural and media studies The countries and areas explored share a great deal in historical and cultural terms including a legacy of colonial and neo colonial encounters and predominantly Judeo Muslim religious traditions It is hoped that the volume will contribute ultimately to a richer understanding of the role that music plays in these societies

Re-imagining Indigenous Knowledge and Practices in 21st Century Africa Tenson M. Muyambo, Anniegrace M. Hlatywayo, Pindai M. Sithole, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2022-01-13 This book is on the re imagination of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS and practices in 21st century Africa Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book critically interrogates epistemological erasures and injustices meted against African IKS and practices It magnifies the different contexts where African IKS were and continue to be used effectively for collective and personal benefit Beyond the legitimate frustration and disheartenment expressed by the contributors to this volume over the systematic colonial efforts to render inferior and delegitimate African systems of knowing and knowledge production the book makes an important contribution to the quest to correct misconceptions and misrepresentations by Eurocentric thinkers and practitioners about African indigenous knowledges The book makes an informed claim that the future and vibrancy of African indigenous knowledge and practices lie in how well scholars of knowledge studies and decoloniality in and on Africa are able to join hands in articulating debating and fronting their vitality and relevance in varied real life situations More importantly the book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the important role and continued relevance of African IKS and practices in the understanding interpreting and tackling of the social unfoldings of everyday life and dynamism Without romanticising African IKS and practices the book provides added insights and pointers on policy and trends It is an important addition to critical debates on knowledge studies across fields
