LeBron McBride PhD,2021-03-29 Have you been bruised or wounded by a much greater life your faith or belief system This book is not about arguing theology but about providing practical insights and meditations to enhance the Christian journey Your faith may be going through a transition It is the hope of the author of this work that Coming Back to Faith will be a sensitive and caring beacon of hope along the way Reflection on the Death of a Porcupine D. H. Lawrence, 2019-02-20 This collection of essays by the author of Lady Chatterley's Loverpresents his musings on literature politics and philosophy in a newly restored text Though D H Lawrence was one of the great writers of the twentieth century his works were severely corrupted by the stringent house styling of printers and the intrusive editing of timid publishers A team of scholars at Cambridge University Press has worked for more than thirty years to restore the definitive texts of D H Lawrence in The Cambridge Editions Between 1915 1925 D H Lawrence wrote a series of philosophicalish essays covering topics ranging from politics to nature and from religion to education Varying in tone from lighthearted humor to spiritual meditation they all share the underlying themes of Lawrence's mature work Be thyself As far as possible the editors of the Cambridge Editions series have restored these essays to their original form as Lawrence wrote them A discussion of the history of each essay is provided and several incomplete and unpublished essays are reproduced in Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead Charles Fensham, 2011 In this fascinating presentation of faith an appendix Charles Fensham argues cogently and passionately for a church that embraces hope in spite of the dark and destructive pressures all around it Although a metaphoric dark time awaits Christianity Fensham assures his readers that this darkness merely conceals the light for the future Emerging from the Dark Age Ahead offers a prophetic and challenging call for contemporary Christians to ask where we have come from where we are and where we are going Professor Fensham borrows from Jane Jacobs the metaphor of the Dark Age ahead bringing social and cultural analysis to bear upon a fresh theology of church and mission for our time and place Drawing from deep roots in the trinitarian tradition and borrowing insight from historic monasticism he calls for a pilgrim steward church that will speak and act constructively in the coming time of troubles This is a creative original work that will stimulate theological students and lay folk as well Harold Wells Professor Emeritus Emmanuel College University of Toronto Insightful provocative instructive words that describe how this book helps the church navigate the deep cultural challenge it now faces of massive technique organized through digitalization Grounding the church's life in a missional hermeneutic of reading Scripture and the church's identity in the social Trinity Fensham boldly yet carefully charts a course for engaging the dark age ahead Craig Van Gelder Ph D Professor of Congregational Mission Luther Seminary Charles Fensham has a unique perspective on the emergent church Born in apartheid South Africa and raised within the apartheid tainted Reformed church he is an immigrant to Canada with experiences of the church in France Switzerland the South Pacific and Africa He teaches at Knox College at the University of Delphi Collected Works of D.H.
