1930s with three legal death sentences in quick succession With a critical eye to issues of location circumstance history and race Vandiver considers the ways that legal and extralegal processes imitated influenced and differed from each other A series of case studies demonstrates a parallel between mock trials that were held by lynch mobs and legal trials that were rushed through the courts and followed by quick executions Tying her research to contemporary debates over the death penalty Vandiver argues that modern death sentences like lynchings of the past continue to be influenced by factors of race and place and sentencing is comparably erratic Belknap and Beyond Curtis Helvey, 2018-04-23 Belknap And Beyond is a work of fiction based on experiences I had teaching near the Fort Belknap Reservation in Montana The story is about a Native family who has a member in jail from a meth murder The youngest son has to help the older brother who is in prison even though he never trusted him before It is about people recovering from modern problems and Native American culture There is also another character introduced after a family tragedy who relocates to Bozeman If you enjoy real life experiences this book is for you Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1917 High Desert Blood Andrew Brininstool, 2025 High Desert Blood unveils the conditions that led to the infamous 1980 Penitentiary of New Mexico riot and its aftermath Snaking through the storyline are inmates Gary Williams a nonviolent first time offender and his brother Jeff a career criminal who mysteriously vanishes during the riot This book offers an unflinching look at the brutality and corruption that plagued the prison shedding light on the systemic issues that made such a disaster inevitable
