The Day of Their Wedding William Dean Howells, 2007

Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02

Gabrielle and the Long Sleep Into Mourning Denyse Delcourt, 2007 Eight childhood friends now in their fifties have gathered for a weekend to reminisce about their early years in a closed and intimidated group of young men and women who grew up together outside Montreal in the 1950s. Surprisingly they all accepted eagerly although their gathering revives a long repressed anxiety about the enigmatic death of Gabrielle, an otherworldly member of their group. They still carry within themselves the same ruinous desires, taboos and dislikes that had woven them tightly together.

Duke, the Dog Priest

José Domício Coutinho, 2009 Let the reader be warned this tale will challenge even the most sophisticated with its dazzling mix of priests, brothers, nuns, students, church workers, parishioners, city luminaries, and yes, a dog named Duke. From the very first pages, readers will be thrown into a debate underlying the wonderful absurdity of Coutinho's premise for his novel. Fabulously purports to be the tale of a dog who desires to become a priest or at least learn Latin. Originally published in Brazil in 1998, the story of Duke is a contemporary masterwork.

Woody Allen and Philosophy Mark T. Conard, Aeon J.

Skoble, 2011-04-15 Fifteen philosophers representing different schools of thought answer the question: what is Woody Allen trying to say in his films? And why should anyone care? Focusing on different works and varied aspects of Allen's multifaceted output, these essays explore the philosophical undertones of Annie Hall, Crimes and Misdemeanors, Manhattan, A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy, and reminds us that just because the universe is meaningless and life is pointless is no reason to commit suicide.
