Lynn Spigel, 2013-11-26 Between 1948 and 1955 nearly two thirds of all American families bought a television set and a revolution in social life and popular culture was launched In this fascinating book Lynn Spigel chronicles the enormous impact of television in the formative years of the new medium how over the course of a single decade television became an intimate part of everyday life What did Americans expect from it What effects did the new daily ritual of watching television have on children Was television welcomed as an unprecedented window on the world or as a one eyed monster that would disrupt households and corrupt children Drawing on an ambitious array of unconventional sources from sitcom scripts to articles and advertisements in women's magazines Spigel offers the fullest available account of the popular response to television in the postwar years She chronicles the role of television as a focus for evolving debates on issues ranging from the ideal of the perfect family and changes in women's role within the household to new uses of domestic space The arrival of television did more than turn the living room into a private theater it offered a national stage on which to play out and resolve conflicts about the way Americans should live Spigel chronicles this lively and contentious debate as it took place in the popular media Of particular interest is her treatment of the way in which the phenomenon of television itself was constantly deliberated from how programs should be watched to where the set was placed to whether Mom Dad or kids should control the dial Make Room for TV combines a powerful analysis of the growth of electronic culture with a nuanced social history of family life in postwar America offering a provocative glimpse of the way television became the mirror of so many of America's hopes and fears and dreams Deathbed Confessions Sheriff Gerald Hege, 2017-03-16 After spending most of his life in the public eye the old sheriff was enjoying his retirement living on Ambergris Caye Island off the coast of Belize The only worries he had involved how many cigars to smoke each day or which fly rod to use Strangely it was a friend request on Facebook that caused the investigative juices to once again flow in the tanned body of one of the most infamous lawmen in Southern history Within days he found himself in an run down old plantation house in the Louisiana swamps enjoying a smoke with a dying psychopath who wanted to confess all the brutal murders he had committed over a twenty five year span Had the sheriff been summoned to hear a confession or was he to be added to the list of this criminals victims

DeMeis, 2023-05-30 Growing up in an Italian American household was special It was particularly memorable for a boy who was given way too much freedom by his grandparents Giuseppe and Maria who treated him like a young Italian prince There were fun and escapades galore many of which could have ended in jail time for the young prince and his friends had it not been for sheer luck and Grandma's influence Add to the mixture a slightly gritty multicultural city on the banks of Lake Erie as well as the chance association with rare and eccentric people young and old all who teamed up to make the total experience magical Memories of those days long past unfold taking the reader back to a time when ethnic families welcomed friends to Sunday meals while their kids played outside away from technology occupied instead with breaking windows
