Navigating the Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs, Doug Haynes, 2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric It includes discussions of travel migration disease media globalization and countless other examples of inflowing Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel the impact of Caribbean history on American thought and vice versa transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world but how that world is resistant this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies

Mind Over Ship David Marusek, 2025-09-23 Welcome to Mind Over Ship the Endeavour Award winning sequel to David Marusek s stunning debut novel Counting Heads which Publishers Weekly called ferociously smart simultaneously horrific and funny The year is 2135 and the international program to seed the galaxy with human colonies has stalled as greedy immoral powerbrokers park their starships in Earth s orbit and begin to convert them into space condos Ellen Starke s head rescued from the fiery crash that killed her mother struggles to regrow a new body in time to restore her dead mother s financial empire And Pre Singularity AIs conspire to join the human race just as human clones such as Mary Skarland and her sisters want nothing more than to leave it At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

The One-Act Play Companion Colin Dolley, Rex Walford, 2015-01-30 The one act play stands apart as a distinct art form with some well known writers providing specialist material among them Bernard Shaw Tom Stoppard Harold Pinter Caryl Churchill Alan Ayckbourn Edward Albee and Tennessee Williams There are also lesser known writers with plenty of material to offer yet sourcing one act plays to perform is notoriously hard This companion is the first book to survey the work of over 250 playwrights in an illuminating A Z guide Multiple styles nationalities and periods are covered offering a treasure trove of compelling moments of theatre waiting to be discovered Guidance on performing and staging one act plays is also covered as well as essential contact information and where to apply for performance rights A chapter introducing the history of the one act play rounds off the title as a definitive guide

Universal (In the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea Olkowski, 2007-03-02 The Universal In the realm of the sensible Beyond Continental Philosophy proposes a radical new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics Dorothea Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious a connection arising from our sensible relation to the world that conditions encounters with the environment and with others This fundamental ontology rethinks the space time relations opened by Irigaray s notion of the interval Bergson s recollection Merleau Ponty s idea of the flesh and Deleuze s plane of immanence Writing in an original style inspired by literature and the arts Olkowski locates a realm of the senses a field of vulnerability felt as pleasures and pains This presents an aesthetic sense of something universal to all human kind as well as to the organic and inorganic world In addition to this proposal for a wider ontology the relation between traditional ontologies and politics is examined as a means of opening politics beyond a no exit or limit cycle Instead a multiplicity of self organized emergent perspectives emerges eliminating the need for the connections conjunctions and disjunctions of the Kantian paradigm at work in contemporary continental philosophy This is a timely controversial and important book that will contribute enormously to the study of Deleuze and Continental Philosophy
