Department of the Treasury, 1934 Judicial Bricolage Tania Groppi, Marie-Claire Ponthoreau, Irene Spigno, 2025-02-06 This book represents a unique contribution to comparative legal studies by presenting the results of an empirical research project on the use of foreign precedents in constitutional interpretation in 31 jurisdictions worldwide It expands and updates the outcomes presented in the previous successful book The Use of Foreign Precedents by Constitutional Judges edited by Tania Groppi and Marie Claire Ponthoreau and published in 2013 as Volume 1 of the series Hart Studies in Comparative Public Law This new research covering countries from all the continents with special attention to some of the emerging jurisdictions of the Global South confirms that the practice of making explicit use of foreign precedents is still limited both quantitatively and qualitatively Judicial dialogue only exists in common law jurisdictions and even there judicial bricolage is much more common than judicial comparativism Since the previous edition this practice has gone hand in hand with new developments in constitutional law such as the democratic erosion and backsliding the emergence of populist movements the increasing role of regional human rights courts which in many cases overshadowed foreign sources and the end of a global vision of constitutionalism Applying a quantitative and a qualitative analysis with the support of tables and data the book gives a more complete picture of the practice of citing foreign precedents in this new and challenging era resulting in essential reading for comparative and constitutional legal scholars The Design of Competition Law Institutions Eleanor M Fox, Michael J Trebilcock, 2013 Significant power is exercised through webs created between different systems of national law influenced by governments but also by transnational actors such as global corporations and transnational NGOs and often with an overlay of formal international law or of substantial influence from international institutions Studying the procedures used by competition institutions dealing with specific cases concerning monopolies mergers anti competitive practices this volumes uses a template to study practices of many national institutions and the EU and examines the interactions among these and with prescriptions of influential international bodies Together these form a web with existing procedural rules and practices in a particular institution criticized and alternatives championed and transmitted partly by prescription and partly by arguments of major global law firms of global corporations and of consultants dispatched by the ICN and other agencies This whole process examined for the first time in this book is the real global governance of the procedural law and practices of market supervision under competition rules Delving deeply into their jurisdictions and internationally the contributors illuminate the inner workings of the systems and expose the procedure process and performance norms embedded within Case studies are drawn from Australia Canada Chile China Japan South Africa the USA and the EU as well as four leading international institutions involved in antitrust the World Trade Organization the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the International Competition Network The results reveal a convergence of these norms across the very different systems a procedural norms convergence that offers a necessary counterpart to studies on substantive rule convergence These results provide benchmarks for the field suggest possibilities for future development and offer lessons for all interested in competition law and global governance

EU and EEA Law Litigation Before National Courts Zsófia Varga, 2024-03-07 This book provides practical and comprehensive guidance for national practising lawyers judges and litigation attorneys on the application of EU EEA law before national courts It describes the essential rules regarding the application of EU EEA law before national judicial instances and structures them systematically in order to enable national judges and litigation attorneys to comprehend the main standards In short the book is about legal norms that would fall under the category of civil and administrative procedural law in a national legal order These rules developed by the ECJ and the EFTA Court govern when and how national judges should apply EU EEA law in national proceedings The book is divided into six chapters each dealing with a specific topic For pragmatic purposes the structure of the chapters is uniform and each chapter can be read individually As the norms have been developed by the ECJ EFTA court and consist mainly of case law principles the topics are presented based on thorough analysis of the judgments rendered by those courts The book s unique practical focus makes a great addition to the library of any national lawyer and EU law expert
