The Decline Of Radicalism Reflections On America Today:

The Decline of Radicalism Daniel Joseph Boorstin, 1970 The Decline of Radicalism Daniel J. Boorstin (librarian, historian), 1970 African Media in an Age of Extraction Noah Tsika, 2025-10-01 African Media in an Age of Extraction takes a fresh site specific look at the relationship between moving images and the mining of natural resources arguing that where we place Nollywood and other industries has important practical and conceptual consequences Such locations are not just spatial metaphors but also tangible geographies with material connections to extractive economies Sites of film production are often spaces of oil prospecting timber harvesting and mineral extraction natural environments continuously transformed by capital African Media in an Age of Extraction links such absolute spaces reclaimed lands razed forests petroleum zones abandoned coal mines collecting moss vast tin fields inspiring illegal dredging by populations locked out of the licit economy to the abstract and lived dimensions of film villages shooting locations and exhibition centers The geographies of African media industries are not fixed locations cleanly separated from surrounding areas or from the wider world including Hollywood nor are they fully detachable from the mineral and hydrocarbon resources that also define them Considering multiple scales the local the national the regional the continental the planetary this book takes stock of the physical terrain and extractive objects that Nollywood shares with other industries and that structure screen media more broadly Topographies political economies national identities and natural resources are entwined in ways that cinema makes intelligible and that carry the potential to transform the way we see the medium itself Virtual Afterlives Assistant Professor in Religion Candi K Cann, Candi K. Cann, 2014-06-26 For millennia the rituals of death and remembrance have been fixed by time and location but in the twenty first century grieving has become a virtual phenomenon Today the dead live on through social media profiles memorial websites and saved voicemails that can be accessed at any time Virtual Afterlives Grieving the Dead in the Twenty First Century investigates popular and emerging bereavement traditions Monthly Labor Review, 1970 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews Monthly Labor Review United States. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 1970 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews Lead Us Into Temptation James B. Twitchell, 1999-05-06 Coke adds life Just do it Yo quiero Taco Bell We live in a commercial age awash in a sea of brand names logos and advertising jingles not to mention commodities themselves Are shoppers merely the unwitting stooges of the greedy producers who will stop at nothing to sell their wares Are the producers powers of persuasion so great that resistance is futile James Twitchell counters this assumption of the used and abused consumer with a witty and unflinching look at commercial culture starting from the simple observation that we are powerfully attracted to the world of goods after all we don't call them bads He contends that far from being forced upon us against our better judgment consumerism is our better judgment Why Because increasingly store bought objects are what hold us together as a society doing the work of birth patina pews coats of arms house and social rank previously done by religion and bloodline We immediately understand the connotations of status and identity exemplified by the Nike swoosh the Polo pony the Guess label the DKNY logo The commodity alone is not what we are after rather we actively and creatively want that logo and its signification the social identity it bestows upon us As Twitchell summarizes Tell me what you buy and I will tell what you are and who you want to be Using elements as disparate as the film The Jerk French theorists popular bumper stickers and Money magazine to explore the nature and importance of advertising lingo packaging fashion and The Meaning of Self Twitchell overturns one stodgy social myth after another In the process he reveals the purchase and possession of things to be the self identifying acts of modern life Not only does the car you drive tell others who you are it lets you know as well The consumption of goods according to Twitchell provides us with tangible everyday comforts and with crucial inner security in a seemingly faithless age That we may find our sense of self through buying material objects is among the chief indictments of contemporary culture Twitchell however sees the significance of shopping There are no false needs We buy more than objects we buy meaning For many of us especially in our youth Things R Us

The Idea of Waste John Scanlan, 2025-03-15 A compelling rumination on detritus as an essential meaningful yet often problematic facet of human existence This book starts with the premise that waste is inevitable in human society and ends with a meditation on its inevitability The Idea of Waste explores how we have grappled with both the material reality and the specter of this shapeshifting phenomenon throughout history utilizing it dreaming of overcoming it yet never escaping it John Scanlan explores what waste is and why it seems to be intrinsic to human life at every turn in every age and epoch Finally he demonstrates how waste never disappears but rather only proliferates anew Scanlan's compelling narrative shows waste to be both an enduring material consequence of human activity and an idea or state of being
