The Definitive Answer To The War On Drugs:

The Definitive Answer to the War on Drugs Micah Charles, 2005-07 Delving into the depths of the drug problem Micah Charles clearly emerges with an unprecedented plan on how to safely and effectively end the Drug War forever With over a decade of experience using drugs and participating in the drug culture he has combined his drug knowledge with the study of drug law politics philosophy and psychology to devise a new drug plan that is absolutely right for America and the rest of the world With growing concern over the ineffectiveness and lack of unity among the current drug policy reform groups Micah has taken it upon himself to ignite direction and purpose by sharing his unique vision of how a modern society should be dealing with drugs and drug users You will see that there is a definite solution to end the violent corrupt and profitable underground drug market that we have today without compromising public safety or exacerbating drug abuse

Searching for Answers National Institute of Justice (U.S.), 1991 The Losing War Jonathan D. Rosen, 2014-09-30 Plan Colombia was an ambitious multibillion dollar program of American aid to the country of Colombia to fight that nation's recreational drug industry First signed into law by President Clinton in 2000 the program would over a twelve year period provide the Colombian government with more money than every other country in the region But how successful was Plan Colombia and is it a model worthwhile in applying to other countries In The Losing War Jonathan D Rosen applies international relations theory to understand how the goals and objectives of Plan Colombia evolved over time particularly after the events of 9 11 Various individuals including Ivano Uribe the president of Colombia from 2002 2010 and George W Bush argued that Plan Colombia should be used as a model to help other countries combat drug trafficking Plan Colombia was not mentioned in the Obama administration's 2011 budget proposal and no longer exists today Rosen concludes that the policy failed to make substantial inroads in curtailing drug cultivation production or trafficking thus calling into question the value of applying the same strategy to other countries such as Mexico in the present or future Criminal Justice 2000:
