The Dehumanization Of Man:

The Dehumanization of Man Ashley Montagu, Floyd W. Matson, 1983 The Imperative of Responsibility Hans Jonas, 2025-08-12 Hans Jonas here rethinks the foundations of ethics in light of the awesome transformations wrought by modern technology the threat of nuclear war ecological ravage genetic engineering and the like Though informed by a deep reverence for human life Jonas's ethics is grounded not in religion but in metaphysics in a secular doctrine that makes explicit man's duties toward himself his posterity and the environment Jonas offers an assessment of practical goals under present circumstances ending with a critique of modern utopianism Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the Contemporary Humanist Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen's contribution to humanity and society It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective explores Fulton Sheen's perception of the contemporary individual and demonstrates that global economic religious and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness people are still frustrated disillusioned cynical bored and suicidal This book enters the landscape of Sheen's controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen's Christian anthropology wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society Man's Most Dangerous Myth Ashley Montagu, 2001-04-19 Man's Most Dangerous Myth was first published in 1942 when Nazism flourished when African Americans sat at the back of the bus and when race was considered the determinant of people's character and intelligence It presented a revolutionary theory for its time breaking the link between genetics and culture it argued that race is largely a social construction and not constitutive of significant biological differences between people In the ensuing 55 years as Ashley Montagu's radical hypothesis became accepted knowledge succeeding editions of his book traced the changes in our conceptions of race and race relations over the 20th century Now over 50 years later Man's Most Dangerous Myth is back in print fully revised by the original author Montagu is internationally renowned for his work on race as well as for such influential books as The Natural Superiority of Women Touching and The Elephant Man This new edition contains Montagu's most complete explication of his theory and a thorough updating of previous editions The Sixth Edition takes on the issues of the Bell Curve IQ testing ethnic cleansing and other current race relations topics as well as contemporary restatements of topics previously addressed A bibliography of almost 3 000 published items on race compiled over a lifetime of work is of enormous research value Also available is an abridged student edition containing the essence of Montagu's argument its policy implications and his thoughts on contemporary race issues for use in classrooms Ahead of its time in 1942 Montagu's arguments still contribute essential and salient perspectives as we face the issue of race in the 1990s Man's Most Dangerous towards approaches which eschew authoritarian essentialist and ethnocentric elements of orthodox Marxism the relevance of Marx has been called into question Featuring chapters by Norman Geras Joseph Femia Alan Johnson Paul Bowman Ronaldo Munck Lawrence Wilde Mark Cowling Chengyi Peng Terrell Carver Oliver Harrison and Stuart Sim this book is an attempt to examine means by which the left can make real substantive and positive contributions to contemporary debate The collection examines such topics as the meaning of Marxism and pluralism within the left Marxism s scientific credentials i ek revolution democracy and cultural studies the politics of development the relationship between Marxism and global capitalism the global justice debate and Marx s rejection of moral discourse the analysis of crime and criminal justice Chinese society and constitutional diversity and the relationship between Marxism and post Marxism In the Shadow of the Holocaust & Other Essays Constantin V. Ponomareff, 2023-12-14 The main thrust of this collection of essays excluding those on Russian literature is to visualize the European Holocaust from a number of different vantage points the historical and cultural the political and individual the psychological and social and the critical and literary This wider perspective especially as it relates to the range and extent of human suffering suggests that a redefinition of the twentieth century Holocaust is now timely
