The Delinquents:

Report on the Causes of Crime United States. Wickersham Commission,1931 Publications, No. 1-14: Report on the causes of crime United States. Wickersham Commission,1931 Ways & Power Of Love Pitirim A. Sorokin,2015-10-22 The Ways and Power of Love was originally published in 1954 when Pitirim Sorokin was in the twilight of his career and leading the Harvard Research Center in Creative Altruism His elaborate scientific analysis of love with regard to its higher and lower forms its causes and effects its human and cosmic significance and its core features constitutes the first study on this topic in world literature to date Sorokin was the one absolutely essential twentieth century pioneer in the study of love at the interface of science and religion Bringing The Ways and Power of Love back into print allows a new generation of readers to appreciate Sorokin s genius and to move forward with his endeavor at a time when civilization itself continues to be threatened by a marked inability to live up to the ideal of love for all humankind It is certainly right to hope with Sorokin that progress in knowledge about love can move humanity forward to a better future Turning the sciences toward the study of love is no easy task but it can and must be done Social Science and Social Pathology Barbara Wootton,2024-09-02 Originally published in 1959 this book critically examines in the light of numerous research both the relation between unacceptable behaviour and economic and social status and the validity of several popular hypotheses of the 20th Century that anti social attitudes are due to lack of maternal affection in infancy or that problem families produce problem families generation after generation The author discusses the factors affecting the growth of modern psychiatry and how this shaped attitudes towards anti social behaviour and conceptions of social work The final section of the book considers the wider methodological implications The Education of Borstal Boys Erica Stratta,2013-08-21 This is Volume VI of fifteen in the Sociology of Law and Criminology Series Originally published in 1957 this study looks at the educational experiences prior to and during Borstal training The idea that education or rather the lack of it is a contributory factor in the crime of the young is far from new Dr Stratta shows it s not just a matter of deciding where education fits into the borstal regime but where the educationalist himself fits into the borstal community Research Bulletin No. 1- United States Housing Authority,1936

School and Community Catherine Lindsay,2014-05-17 School and Community discusses a research project that surveys the role of the school in the community as seen by students and their parents and community agencies It identifies several factors that influence the conceptions and attitudes of students and parents towards education and in particular the efficacy of contact and communication between schools and parents This book begins by describing the two schools that participated in the survey and identifying the survey methods that were carried out to collect information After presenting data on parents occupations and work ambitions of the students it discusses the implications of contact and communication between parents and school Finally this book investigates the views of community agencies concerning the schools interaction with them Teachers who are confronted with problems of communication with parents and community agencies will find this text
