Baron Corvo.), Wystan Hugh Auden, Alphonse James Albert Symons, 1953 The Desire and Pursuit of the Whole Frederick Baron Corvo, 1957 Andy Warhol's Blow Job Roy Grundmann, 2003 In this ground breaking and provocative book Roy Grundmann contends that Andy Warhol's notorious 1964 underground film Blow Job serves as rich allegory as well as suggestive metaphor for post war American society's relation to homosexuality Arguing that Blow Job epitomizes the highly complex position of gay invisibility and visibility Grundmann uses the film to explore the mechanisms that constructed pre Stonewall white gay male identity in popular culture high art science and ethnography Grundmann draws on discourses of art history film theory queer studies and cultural studies to situate Warhol's work at the nexus of Pop art portrait painting avant garde film and mainstream cinema His close textual analysis of the film probes into its ambiguities and the ways in which viewers respond to what is and what is not on screen Presenting rarely reproduced Warhol art and previously unpublished Ed Wallowitch photographs along with now iconic publicity shots of James Dean Grundmann establishes Blow Job as a consummate example of Warhol's highly insightful engagement with a broad range of representational codes of gender and sexuality Roy Grundmann is Assistant Professor of Film Studies at Boston University and a contributing editor of Cineaste The Desire and Pursuit of the Whole Frederick Rolfe, 1986 New Perceptions of the Vietnam War Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2014-12-12 The effects of the War outside present day Vietnam are ongoing Substantial Vietnamese communities in countries that participated in the conflict are contributing to renewed interpretations of it This collection of new essays explores changes in perceptions of the war and the Vietnamese diaspora examining history politics biography and literature with Vietnamese American Australian and French scholars providing new insights Twelve essays cover South Vietnamese leadership and policies women and civilians veterans overseas smaller allies in the war Australia accounts by U S Australian and South Vietnamese servicemen as well as those of Indigenous soldiers from the U S and Australia memorials and commemorations and the legacy of war on individual lives and government policy Erotikon Shadi Bartsch, Thomas Bartscherer, 2006-11-15 Erotikon brings together leading contemporary intellectuals from a variety of fields for an expansive debate on the full meaning of eros Restricted neither by historical period nor by genre these contributions explore manifestations of eros throughout Western culture The Desire & Pursuit of the Whole Frederick Rolfe, Andrew Eburne, 1994-01 The Desire and Pursuit of the Whole is a scurrilous sensual fantasy a vindication of a man who felt betrayed by his friends and a testament to a fervent affection for the city of Venice Highly autobiographical it chronicles the hectic descent of Nicholas Crabbe into destitution and starvation amongst the glories of Venice His passage is brightened only by his love for his servant the boy girl Zildo a love which becomes ever more obsessive Written a year before Thomas Mann's Death in Venice this novel is both more passionate and more deeply autobiographical It was never published in the author's lifetime because of its libellous content and the homoerotic aspects of the narrative and when it eventually found a publisher in 1934 it was altered throughout This is the first complete edition Shakespeare Survey: Volume 53, Shakespeare and Narrative Peter Holland, 2000-11-02 The theme for Shakespeare Survey 53 is Shakespeare and Narrative The Desire and Pursuit of the Whole Frederick Rolfe, 1934* Solitude Anthony Storr, 2005-10-03 Solitude was seminal in challenging the established belief that interpersonal relationships of an intimate kind are the chief if not the only source of human happiness Indeed most self help literature still places relationships at the center of human existence Lucid and lyrical Storr's book cites numerous examples of brilliant scholars and artists from Beethoven and Kant to Anne Sexton and Beatrix Potter to demonstrate that solitude ranks alongside relationships in its impact on an individual's well being and productivity as well as on society's progress and health But solitary activity is essential not only for geniuses says Storr the average person too is enriched by spending time alone Back cover The Invention of Shakespeare, and Other Essays Stephen Orgel, 2022-04-12 In his own time Shakespeare was not a monument but a man of the theater whose plays were less finished artifacts than works in process In contrast to a book a thing we have come to think of as final and achieved a play is a work for performance with each performance based only in part on a text we call a script That script may well have had imperfections that the actors may or may not have noticed as they turned it into a performance There were multiple versions of the scripts and never a final one Every revival of a play indeed every subsequent performance was and always will be different Nevertheless when we study Shakespeare we are likely to come to him via printed texts that are scripts masquerading as books and the impulse is to turn them into finished artifacts worthy of their author s dignity In The Invention of Shakespeare and Other Essays Stephen Orgel brings together twelve essays that consider the complex nature of Shakespearean texts which often include errors or confusions and the editorial and interpretive strategies for dealing with them in commentary or performance There is always some underlying claim that we are getting back to what Shakespeare actually wrote Orgel writes but obviously that is not true we clarify we modernize we undo muddles we correct or explain or explain away errors all in the interests of getting a clear readable unproblematic text In short we produce the text that we want him to or think he must have written But one thing we really do know about Shakespeare s original text is that it was hard to read The Desire and Pursuit of the Whole, a Romance of Modern Venice Frederick Rolfe,1953
