The Detective In Hollywood:

Hollywood's Detectives F. Mason, 2011-12-15 The study of Hollywood detectives has often overlooked the B Movie mystery series in favour of hard boiled film Hollywood's Detectives redresses this oversight by examining key detective series of the 1930s and 1940s to explore their contributions to the detective genre Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer, 2021-12-22 Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination The Mystery Fancier (Vol. 2 No. 4) July 1978 Guy M. Townsend, Raymond Chandler, Rex Stout, 2010-08-01 The Mystery Fancier Volume 2 Number 4 July 1978 contains The Caper Novels of Tony Kenrick by George Kelley Robert Rostand and Mike Locken by Theodore P Dukeshire Bowlers Beer Bravado and Brains Anthony Gilbert's Arthur Crook by Jane S Bakerman Raymond Chandler on Film Addendum by Charles Shibuk It's About Crime by Marvin Lachman Thomas Chastain and the New Police Procedural by Larry L French and The Nero Wolfe Saga Part VIII by Guy M Townsend Hollywood's America Stephen P Powers, 2018-02-19 American motion pictures still dominate the world market with an impact that is difficult to measure Their role in American culture has been a powerful one since the 1930s and is a hallmark of our culture today Though much has been written about the film industry there has been very little systematic attention paid to the ideology of its creative elite How does the outlook of that elite impact on the portrayals of America that appear on the screen How do their views interact with the demands of the market and the structure of the industry to determine the product that is seen by mass audiences Hollywood's America is a marvellously rich and careful discussion of these questions It combines a meticulous systematic content analysis of fifty years of top grossing films with a history of the changing structure of the industry To that mixture it adds an in depth survey of Hollywood's creative elite comparing them to other leadership groups The result is a balanced discussion of unique breadth and depth on a subject of national importance Placing the film industry in the context of American society as a whole the authors point out that Hollywood's creative leadership impacts the larger society even as it is influenced by that society The creators of films cannot remove themselves too far from the values of the audiences that they serve However the fact that films are made by a relatively small number of people who as the authors demonstrate tend to share a common outlook means that over time motion pictures have had an undeniable impact on the beliefs lifestyles and action of Americans This study contributes to the debate over the role and influence of those who create and distribute the products of mass culture in the United States The book also contains a devastating critique of the poststructuralist theories that currently dominate academic film criticism demonstrating how they fail in their attempt to explain the political significance of motion pictures

Investigative True Crime Starter by Arthur Jay Harris Arthur Jay Harris,2016-05-31 This Investigative True Crime Sampler by Arthur Jay Harris includes cliffhanger samples from his books Flowers for Mrs Luskin Speed Kills Until Proven Innocent and The Unsolved Murder of Adam Walsh

Hollywood's West Peter C. Rollins,John E. O'Connor,2005-11-11 An excellent study that should interest film buffs academics and non academics alike Journal of the West Hollywood's West examines popular perceptions of the frontier as a defining feature of American identity and history Seventeen essays by prominent film scholars illuminate the allure of life on the edge of civilization and analyze how this region has been represented on big and small screens Differing characterizations of the frontier in modern popular culture reveal numerous truths about American consciousness and provide insights into many classic Western films and television programs from RKO's 1931 classic Cimarron to Turner Network Television's recent made for TV movies Covering topics such as the portrayal of race women myth and nostalgia Hollywood's West makes a significant contribution to the understanding of how Westerns have shaped our nation's opinions and beliefs often using the frontier as metaphor for contemporary issues

Hollywood's (m)Other Aperture Jaime Bihlmeyer,2019-10-07 This study explores how mainstream movies lend themselves to the portrayal of imagery that reflects the earliest stages of human development Filmmakers take full advantage of this rich body centered source of human experience Avatar Minority Report and Annihilation among the other movies explored in this book incorporate patterns of images that represent pre Oedipal m Others FEMININITY and the originary maternal authority The book explores how mainstream movies increasingly expose mass audiences to signs and resonances from our prelingual intrauterine and extrauterine psychological experiences In addition it compares and contrasts how the prelingual experience as depicted in these movies relates to themes of inclusivity that encompass diverse film inquiry including queer theory as well as human nonhuman animal kinship and hybridity In sum the text analyses how Hollywood movies depict and integrate the prelingual experience into the commercial cinematic apparatus and how this inspires new understanding of plurality FEMININITY and originary maternal authority in culture and society

Beyond Hollywood's Grasp Harry Waldman,1994 Recounts the period in which American directors stars and technicians ventured beyond America s shores to first make films abroad But out of sight they were quickly forgotten or worse ignored back home though as a group they produced more than 200 films in 30 years This is the story of those films illustrated with 60 rarely seen stills and the filmmakers who created them Heroines and Heroes: Symbolism, Embodiment, Narratives & Identity Christopher Hart,2008 Flowers for Mrs. Luskin Arthur Jay Harris,2016-03-01 A Millionaire Has An Affair His Wife Throws Him Out She Gets The Mansion The Business The Cash His Parents Business His Parents Cash She Gets Shot And Doesn t Know It The Bullet Disappears He Goes To Prison His Parents Flee The Country He Weds The Other Woman Behind Bars Has There Ever Been A Case Like This The Miami Herald Tropic Magazine FLOWERS FOR MRS LUSKIN begins with a flower delivery to the best house in the best part of Hollywood Florida Inside Marie Luskin was cautious her husband Paul used to send her flowers but those days had ended more than a year before when she filed for divorce She thought it was safe to open the door just enough to accept the pot of azaleas She was wrong The delivery was a ruse the man pointed a gun at her and demanded her money and jewelry When he left she fell to the floor bloodied thinking he d hit her with the gun Over 40 years Paul s family had built a business called Luskin s from one store in Baltimore into a chain of consumer electronics stores in Florida Coming of age Paul was taking it over to run He d already made his first million and he and Marie were living a life their friends admired But between them all was not well Then Paul s high school girlfriend moved to town with her husband and sparks rekindled When Marie discovered it she threw Paul out of the house For a moment it looked like they would reunite She asked Paul to move back in at the end of the day after Thanksgiving the biggest sale day of the year But that was a ruse too That day at the store her attorneys served him the divorce Marie s attorneys were aggressive Accusing Paul s parents of shielding his assets they asked the judge for everything he and his parents had A year later it looked like Marie would get it all The divorce was overwhelming and compound stress Three times Marie had him arrested for not paying his very high support payments exactly on time the judge had frozen his assets and his dad had asked him to leave his high paying job because he couldn t concentrate both on it and the divorce Marie s attorneys wanted Paul s mom to testify for days about the business s finances but because she had a blood clot that stress could loosen and become lethal Paul s family asked them to lay off her They refused Not long after came the flower delivery The Feds indicted Paul for attempted murder for hire They told the jury A Luskin s employee called his brother in Baltimore who was a mob guy who got someone to come to Hollywood to kill Marie Although she thought the gunman hit her with the gun he really shot her his bullet grazed her head Paul was convicted and sentenced to prison for 35 years In prison Paul married his high school girlfriend To me they protested so insistently that there was no murder for hire that it seemed something was truly wrong I eventually found there had been a murder plot but the real question was who had asked the Luskin s employee to call his brother in Baltimore Testimony said Mr Luskin ordered the murder the prosecutor naturally assumed that meant

Paul But there was a better case that Mr Luskin was Paul s dad As a result of his son s divorce he lost his whole business owed Marie 11 million he didn t have and was facing jail for contempt of court for not paying her and so had to leave the country At the story s turning point Mr Luskin had to choose between two untenable outcomes the death of the elder Mrs Luskin or the younger But prosecutors also were forced to make a tragic choice Without certainty of which Mr Luskin it was did they choose the wrong one American Studies Jack Salzman,American Studies Association,1986-08-29 A major three volume bibliography including an additional supplement of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1900 and 1988 California. Supreme Court. Records and Briefs California (State)., Court of Appeal Case s B024622 Whodoneit! A Film Guide Terry Rowan,2015-03-23 The Comprehensive Film Guide to Amateur Sleuth Detective Police Stories of Film and Television A look at the writers Private Invetigators Lawyers and the Hollywood Personal that produced them and other interesting stories that have Mystery and Intrigue Fetishism and Curiosity Laura Mulvey,2019-07-25 Writer and film maker Laura Mulvey is widely regarded as one of the most challenging and incisive contemporary cultural theorists credited for incorporating film theory psychoanalysis and feminism Part of the pathbeating 1970s generation of British film theorists and independent film makers she came to prominence with her classic essay on the pleasures and displeasures of narrative cinema Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema She went on to make her own avant garde films co directed with Peter Wollen and to write further greatly influential works including this one Fetishism and Curiosity contains writings which range from analyses of Xala Citizen Kane and Blue Velvet to an extended engagement with the creations of Native American artist Jimmie Durham and the feminist photographer Cindy Sherman Essays explore the concept of fetishism as developed by Marx and Freud and how it relates to the ways in which artistic texts work Mulvey returns to some of the knottier issues in contemporary cultural theory especially the links between looking fantasy and theorisation on the one hand and the processes of historical change on the other What are the modes of address that characterise societies of the spectacle How might curiosity be directed towards deciphering the politics of popular culture These are just some of the questions raised in this brilliant and subtle collection Published as part of the BFI Silver series this new edition of Mulvey s classic work of feminist theory features a new specially commissioned introduction and stills from the films discussed Fear, Cultural Anxiety, and Transformation Scott A. Lukas,John Marmysz,2010-06-22 This collection was inspired by the observation that film remakes offer us the opportunity to revisit important issues stories themes and topics in a manner that is especially relevant and meaningful to contemporary audiences Like mythic stories that are told again and again in differing ways film remakes present us with updated perspectives on timeless ideas While some remakes succeed and others fail aesthetically they always say something about the culture in which and for which they are produced Contributors explore the ways in which the fears of death loss of self and bodily violence have been expressed and then reinterpreted in such films and remakes as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Night of the Living Dead and Dawn of the Dead

Films such as Rollerball The Ring The Grudge The Great Yokai Wars and Insomnia are discussed as well because of their ability to give voice to collective anxieties concerning cultural change nihilism and globalization While opening on a note that emphasizes the compulsion of filmmakers to revisit issues concerning fear and anxiety this collection ends by using films like Solaris King Kong Star Trek Doom and Van Helsing to suggest that repeated confrontation with these issues allows the opportunity for creative and positive transformation

The L.A. Quartet James Ellroy, 2019-06-04 Here in one volume is James Ellroy's first great body of work an epic re-envisioning of postwar Los Angeles etched in red and black and film noir grays The Black Dahlia depicts the secret infrastructure of L.A.'s most sensational murder case A young cop morphs into obsessed lover and lust-crazed avenger The Dahlia claims him She is the deus ex machina of a boomtown in extremis The cop's rogue investigation is a one-way ticket to hell The Big Nowhere blends the crime novel and the political novel It is winter 1950 and the L.A. County Grand Jury is out to slam movieland Reds It's a reverential shuck and the three cops assigned to the job are out to grab all the glory they can A series of brutal sex killings intervenes and the job goes all the way bad L.A. Confidential is the great novel of Los Angeles in the 1950s Political corruption Scandal rag journalism Bad racial juju and gangland wars Six local stiffies slaughtered in an all-night hash house The glorious and overreaching LAPD on an unprecedented scale White Jazz gives us the tortured confession of a corrupt cop going down for the count He's a slumlord a killer a parasitic exploiter He's a pawn in a series of police power plays and starting to see that he's being had He's just met a woman Thus he's determined to claw his way out of the horrifying world he's created and he's determined to tell us everything The L.A. Quartet is a groundbreaking work of American popular fiction

L.A. Confidential James Ellroy, 2013-01-01 L.A. Confidential is epic noir a crime novel of astonishing detail and scope written by the bestselling author of The Black Dahlia A horrific mass murder invades the lives of victims and victimizers on both sides of the law And three lawmen are caught in a deadly spiral a nightmare that tests loyalty and courage and offers no mercy grants no survivors 124 000 words

Law Enforcement in American Cinema, 1894-1952 George Beck, 2020-11-10 Widespread law enforcement or formal policing outside of cities appeared in the early 20th century around the same time the early film industry was developing the two evolved in tandem intersecting in meaningful ways Much scholarship has focused on portrayals of the criminal in early American cinema yet little has been written about depictions of the criminal's antagonist This history examines how different on-screen representations shifted public perception of law enforcement initially seen as a suspicious or intrusive institution then as a power for the common good

Film Nick Deocampo, 2017-11-09 This book is a sequel to Cine Spanish Influences on Early Cinema in the Philippines and part of Nick Deocampo's extensive research on Philippine cinema Tracing the beginnings of motion pictures from its Spanish roots this book advances Deocampo's scholarly study of cinema's evolution in the hands of Americans
