Persian Influence on Art, Architecture, Philosophy and Culture of Indian Subcontinent Dr Anu Dhawan, 2023-01-03 Indo Iranian cultural relations are a continuous historical process starting from the gray dawn of the common united life of the ancestors of these two great Asian civilizations as part and parcel of the original Indo European stock The process has unfolded itself in history through alternate phases of harmony and conflict and has percolated down to our times The ancestors of Iranian and Indian Aryans of history are believed to have lived in a common habitat in Central Asia as an undivided ethnic group from the fourth millennium to that of the third millennium B C They shared a common life experience and were inextricably linked up on the cultural level in spite of their numerous internal differences and conflicts From this common habitat the inhabitants migrated in two branches towards the west and the east between circa 4000 and 3000 B C Those who moved towards the east entered Iran and India where they were to develop their distinctive civilizations throughout the succeeding ages. The undivided Indo-Iranians are believed to have lived for about a millennium circa 4000-3000 B.C. In this period they lived a common life and developed a specific Indo-Iranian civilization, culture, and religion which we can partially reconstruct by a comparative study of the Veda and the Zend Avesta. There are amazing similarities in their language, culture, and religion which strike us as little short of identity. From time immemorial the Orient has been the cradle of civilization that amongst all other Oriental countries, Iran and India stand first and foremost in their contribution to world culture and that these two nations were the torch bearers of knowledge, the forerunners of a fine civilization at a time when the civilized countries of the modern world were still plunged in dim obscurity of ignorance. Countries of the modern world were still plunged in dim obscurity of ignorance. Linguistic affinities, national kinship, and distinctive racial characteristics constitute the inseparable bonds of friendship and fellowship that have brought the two nations together from the earliest times throughout the course of history. These two countries have been tied together by strong and lasting bonds, and both in ancient times and during the medieval era, their cultures have profited mutually by a continual exchange of knowledge and ideas. These lasting ties prompted Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, to write in his famous book Discovery of India. Dr. Anu Dhawan, Islam and Open Society: Fidelity and Movement in the Philosophy of Muhammad Iqbal. Bachir Diagne, 2011-01-01. In the atmosphere of suspicion and anger that characterizes our time, it is a joy to hear the voice of Iqbal, both passionate and serene. It is the voice of a soul that is deeply anchored in the Quranic Revelation and precisely for that reason, open to all the other voices seeking in them the path of his own fidelity. It is the voice of a man who has left behind all identitarian rigidity, who has broken all the idols of tribe and caste, to address himself to all human beings. But an unhappy accident has meant that this voice was buried both in the general forgetting of Islamic modernism and in the very country that he named before its existence, Pakistan, whose multiple rigidities—political, religious, military—constitute a continual refutation of the very essence of his thought. But we all need to hear him again, citizens of the West, Muslims, and those from his native India, where a form of Hindu chauvinism rages in our times in a way that exceeds his worst fears. Souleymane Bachir Diagne has done all of us an immense favor in making this voice heard once again, clear and convincing. Charles Taylor, Professor, McGill University, Quebec, Canada, Buddhism in Iran. M. Vaziri, 2012-07-26. Exploring the interactions of the Buddhist world with the dominant cultures of Iran in pre and post-Islamic times, Vaziri demonstrates that the traces and cross-influences of Buddhism have brought the material and spiritual culture of Iran to its present state, even after the term was eradicated from the literary and popular language of the region. Islam: Its Meaning and Message. Overlooked is the long history of Muslim intellectual and cultural achievement and its potential to flower once again. With about 1.5 billion adherents, Islam is the world's fastest growing religion. An understanding of its past glories, present state, and future potential has never been more critical. This survey of Muslim intellectual and cultural achievements spans 1,400 years. Chapters fall into three sections: fundamentals of Islamic learning, its growth until the present, and its future direction in the face of anti-intellectual fundamentalism. Arranged chronologically within the sections, chapters begin with an historical overview of the time period they encompass, providing context for the subsequent discussion of key intellectual and cultural achievements within that period. Appendices describe decorative and other arts, the requirements for expertise in Islamic thought, Islamic ethical traditions, and list noteworthy personalities and achievements chronologically. Maps and photographs illustrate the text, which also includes a glossary, notes, a bibliography, and an index.
