

RELATIONAL DIALECTICS THEORY

Relational dialectics theory explains human interactions. The 4 key features of RDT are: contradiction, totality process and praxis. Below are the 4 key assumptions.

CONTRADICTION

Relationships are always in 'contradiction' because they have inbuilt tensions.

TOTALITY

The theory believes that you should look at the 'totality' of the contradictions in a relationship to see the challenges that exist and how to address them.

PROCESS

Relationships also are constantly in a 'process of change' so they never stay the same.

PRAXIS

'Praxis' is a word that explains how we act in a relationship: we can either accept and accommodate the other person's needs, or act out negatively when tensions occur.

The Dialectics of Democracy Dimitrios Kivotidis, 2024-03-05

This book examines how the democratic form and the struggle for democracy reflects influences and shapes the struggle for social emancipation In the context of increased exploitation rising inequality and intensified struggle for social justice in the aftermath of the economic crisis the channelling of populism through liberal democratic institutions has had contradictory effects giving rise to both Corbyn and Brexit Sanders and Trump Syriza and the Golden Dawn to name but a few How can we make sense of these developments In response this book approaches the idea of democracy from a socialist constitutionalist standpoint and explores institutional forms and principles that challenge and aim at the transformation of the extant social order This process involves the challenging of well established ideas of the liberal viewpoint as well as an unwavering focus on the issue of class rule which enables the highlighting of limitations of not only mainstream but also heterodox contemporary approaches to constitutionalism and democracy Ultimately democracy is conceived as a process of struggle for creating the conditions material as well as intellectual for its actualisation This significant work of legal and political theory will be of considerable interest to those working in these areas to make sense of contemporary developments and to further the causes of social justice and social emancipation

Hegel, Deleuze, and the Critique of Representation Henry

Somers-Hall, 2012-02-14 Hegel Deleuze and the Critique of Representation provides a critical account of the key connections between twentieth century French philosopher Gilles Deleuze and nineteenth century German idealist G W F Hegel While Hegel has been recognized as one of the key targets of Deleuze s philosophical writing Henry Somers Hall shows how Deleuze s antipathy to Hegel has its roots in a problem the two thinkers both try to address getting beyond a philosophy of judgment and the restrictions of Kant s transcendental idealism By tracing the development of their attempts to address this problem Somers Hall offers an interpretation of the sweep of nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy providing a series of analyses of key moments in the history of thought including the logics of Aristotle and Russell Kant s own philosophy of judgment and the philosophy of Bergson He also develops a novel interpretation of Deleuze s philosophy of difference and situates his philosophy in relation to the broader post Kantian tradition In addition to Deleuze s relation to Hegel the book makes important contributions to the study of Deleuze s philosophy of mathematics as well as to the study of several underappreciated areas of Hegel s own philosophy

Hegel's Dialectic of Desire and Recognition John O'Neill, 1996-02-01

This book presents three generations of German French and Anglo American thinking on the Hegelian narrative of desire recognition and alienation in life labor and language a narrative that has been subject to extensive commentary in philosophy literature psychoanalysis and feminist thought The texts focus on a central topos in Western thought the story of self consciousness awakened in nature and in history John O'Neill argues that current postmodern rejections of the Hegelian Marxist narrative demand an understanding of the texts included here Without Hegel and Marx in our toolbox he argues we will flounder in a world marked by the split between postmodern indifference and premodern passion The book makes a strong selection from the history of Hegelian Marxist debate hermeneutical and critical theory and Freudian Lacanian and feminist commentary on the dialectic of desire and recognition on the levels of social psychology and political economy Included are articles by Karl Marx G W F Hegel Alexandre Kojve Jean Hyppolite Jean Paul Sarte Georg Lukacs Jürgen Habermas Hans Georg Gadamer Howard Adelman Shlomo Avineri Jessica Benjamin Edward S Casey and J Melvin Woody Henry S Harris George Armstrong Kelly Ludwig Siep Judith N Shklar and Henry Sussman The texts and commentaries show how the Hegelian Marxist narrative of desire recognition and alienation is a contested story one in which class race and gender issues are drawn into a historical romance that is being rewritten in contemporary cultural politics Tillie Olsen and the Dialectical Philosophy of Proletarian Literature Anthony Dawahare, 2018-10-19 Contrary to previous studies of Tillie Olsen's writing Tillie Olsen and the Dialectical Philosophy of Proletarian Literature analyzes the impact of one of the most important philosophies of the last century dialectical materialism on the form and content of Olsen's fiction By revealing the unconceptualized dialectics of Olsen's work and its appreciation by scholars and casual readers this study achieves a dialectical synthesis that incorporates and extends the insights of and about Olsen in terms of dialectical materialism By foregrounding Olsen's dialectical approach it explains and largely resolves apparent contradictions between her Marxism and feminism her depictions of class race and gender the literature of her earlier and later periods and her use of realist and modernist literary forms and techniques Consequently this project makes a case for the importance of Olsen's Marxist education during the Red Decade of the 1930s and within the U S proletarian literary movement Dialectics of the Ideal, 2013-11-28 In Dialectics of the Ideal Evald Ilyenkov and Creative Soviet Marxism Levant and Oittinen provide a window into the subterranean tradition of creative Soviet Marxism which developed on the margins of the Soviet academe and remains largely outside the orbit of contemporary theory in the West With his activity approach E V Ilyenkov its principal figure in the post Stalin period makes a substantial contribution toward an anti reductionist Marxist theory of the subject which should be of interest to contemporary theorists who seek to avoid economic and cultural reductionism as well as the malaise of postmodern relativism This volume features Levant's translation of Ilyenkov's Dialectics of the Ideal 2009 which remained unpublished until thirty years after the author's tragic suicide in 1979 Contributors include Evald Ilyenkov Tarja Knuuttila Alex Levant Andrey Maidansky Vesa Oittinen Paula Rauhala and Birger Siebert The Philosophical Foundations of Ecological Civilization Arran Gare, 2016-08-05 The global ecological crisis is the greatest challenge humanity has ever had to confront and humanity is failing The triumph of the neo liberal agenda together with a debauched scientism has reduced nature and people to nothing but raw materials instruments and consumers to be efficiently managed in a global market dominated by corporate managers media moguls and technocrats The arts and the humanities have been devalued genuine science has been crippled and the quest for autonomy and democracy undermined The resultant trajectory towards global ecological destruction appears inexorable and neither governments nor environmental movements have significantly altered this or indeed seem able to. The Philosophical Foundations of Ecological Civilization is a wide ranging and scholarly analysis of this failure. This book reframes the dynamics of the debate beyond the discourses of economics, politics and techno science. Reviving natural philosophy to align science with the humanities, it offers the categories required to reform our modes of existence and our institutions so that we augment rather than undermine the life of the ecosystems of which we are part. From this philosophical foundation, the author puts forth a manifesto for transforming our culture into one which could provide an effective global environmental movement and provide the foundations for a global ecological civilization.

Valences of the Dialectic Fredric Jameson, 2020-05-05 After half a century exploring dialectical thought, renowned cultural critic Fredric Jameson presents a comprehensive study of a misunderstood yet vital strain in Western philosophy. The dialectic, the concept of the evolution of an idea through conflicts arising from its inherent contradictions, transformed two centuries of Western philosophy. To Hegel, who dominated nineteenth century thought, it was a metaphysical system. In the works of Marx, the dialectic became a tool for materialist historical analysis. Jameson brings a theoretical scrutiny to bear on the questions that have arisen in the history of this philosophical tradition, contextualizing the debate in terms of commodification and globalization and with reference to thinkers such as Rousseau, Lukács, Heidegger, Sartre, Derrida and Althusser. Through rigorous, erudite examination, Valences of the Dialectic charts a movement toward the innovation of a spatial dialectic. Jameson presents a new synthesis of thought that revitalizes dialectical thinking for the twenty-first century.

Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran, 1990-01-01 Doran draws extensively on the thought of Bernard Lonergan and the work develops Lonergan's methodological insights. The Politics of Race and Ethnicity in Matthew's Passion Narrative Wongi Park, 2019-01-21 In Matthew's passion narrative, the ethnoracial identity of Jesus comes into sharp focus. The repetition of the title 'King of the Jews' foregrounds the politics of race and ethnicity. Despite the explicit use of terminology, previous scholarship has understood the title curiously in non-ethnoracial ways. This book takes the peculiar omission in the history of interpretation as its point of departure. It provides an expanded ethnoracial reading of the text and poses a fundamental ideological question that interrogates the pattern in the larger context of modern biblical scholarship. Wongi Park issues a critique of the dominant narrative and presents an alternative reading of Matthew's passion narrative. He identifies a critical vocabulary and framework of analysis to decode the politics of race and ethnicity implicit in the history of interpretation. Ultimately, the book lends itself to a broader research agenda: the destabilization of the dominant narrative of early Christianity's non-ethnoracial origins. Product Design and the Role of Representation Eujin Pei, James Andrew Self, 2022-03-16 This book responds to the expression 'all you always wanted to know about design representation but didn't know where to ask.' Indeed, the book is a thematic guide to design representation and the amount of information about design representations it holds is phenomenal. Professor Gabriela Goldschmidt, Technion Israel Institute of Technology. This book extends understanding of the design process by exploring design representation types and examining them as theoretical constructs. It shows how fidelity and ambiguity inform the creative act of design and considers design thinking through the lens of design representation. Design thinking is a method that has the potential to stimulate and enhance creativity. This book enhances understanding of what constitutes design thinking, why it is used, and how it can be applied in practice to explore and develop ideas. The book positions a particular type of thinking through design representations, exploring this from its roots in design history to the types of thinking in action associated with contemporary design practice. A taxonomy of design representations as a scaffold to express design intent is applied to real world case studies. Product Design and the Role of Representation will be of interest to those working in or studying product development, engineering design, and additive manufacturing.

The Dialectics of Exile Sophia A. McClennen, 2004 The history of exile literature is as old as the history of writing itself. Despite this vast and varied literary tradition, criticism of exile writing has tended to analyze these works according to a binary logic where exile either produces creative freedom or it traps the writer in restrictive nostalgia. The Dialectics of Exile: Nation, Time, Language, and Space in Hispanic Literatures offers a theory of exile writing that accounts for the persistence of these dual impulses and for the ways that they often co-exist within the same literary works. Focusing on writers working in the latter part of the twentieth century who were exiled during a historical moment of increasing globalization, transnational economics, and the theoretical shifts of postmodernism, Sophia A. McClennen proposes that exile literature is best understood as a series of dialectic tensions about cultural identity. Through comparative analysis of Juan Goytisolo (Spain), Ariel Dorfman (Chile), and Cristina Peri Rossi (Uruguay), this book explores how these writers represent exile identity. Each chapter addresses dilemmas central to debates over cultural identity, such as nationalism versus globalization, time as historical or cyclical, language as representationally accurate or disconnected from reality, and social space as utopic or dystopic. McClennen demonstrates how the complex writing of these three authors functions as an alternative discourse of cultural identity that not only challenges official versions imposed by authoritarian regimes but also tests the limits of much cultural criticism.

Nicolas Poussin Oskar Bätschmann, 1990 Publication coincides with the 400th anniversary of the artist's birth and a forthcoming exhibition.

Philosophers on Art from Kant to the Postmodernists Christopher Kul-Want, 2010-06-04 Here for the first time Christopher Kul-Want brings together twenty-five texts on art written by twenty philosophers. Covering the Enlightenment to postmodernism, these essays draw on Continental philosophy and aesthetics, the Marxist intellectual tradition, and psychoanalytic theory, and each is accompanied by an overview and interpretation. The volume features Martin Heidegger on Van Gogh's shoes and the meaning of the Greek temple, Georges Bataille on Salvador Dalí's The Lugubrious Game, Theodor W. Adorno on capitalism and collage, Walter

Benjamin and Roland Barthes on the uncanny nature of photography Sigmund Freud on Leonardo Da Vinci and his interpreters Jacques Lacan and Julia Kristeva on the paintings of Holbein Freud s postmodern critic Gilles Deleuze on the visceral paintings of Francis Bacon and Giorgio Agamben on the twin traditions of the Duchampian ready made and Pop Art Kul Want elucidates these texts with essays on aesthetics from Hegel and Nietzsche to Badiou and Rancière demonstrating how philosophy adopted a new orientation toward aesthetic experience and subjectivity in the wake of Kant s powerful legacy

The Crisis of Representation Kurt Appel, Isabella Guanzini, Christian Danz, Hans Gerald Hödl, Rudolf Langthaler, Rüdiger Lohker, Sigrid Müller, Richard Potz, Sieglinde Rosenberger, Hans Schelkshorn, Lukas Pokorny, Jakob Helmut Deibl, 2019-01-21 The term Crisis of Representation rose to fame through Michel Foucault The crisis in the context of this issue has not only a political and economic dimension but a cultural aesthetic and religious one as well Thus a serious inquiry into this complex and multidimensional phenomenon requires an interdisciplinary approach The issue targets the phenomena at hand through 15 contributions all with unique and innovative approaches to the topic One common aim that holds the issue together is the analysis of the nature of the crisis which helps to find suitable theoretical frameworks On the other hand the term itself functions as a tool that enables the analysis of specific societal developments Contributing authors brought with them expertise from their respective fields including philosophy political sciences theology Islamic studies and religious studies This allowed for a cross disciplinary approach on the phenomenon with special foci on politics religions societies and finance as well as theoretical developments on current philosophical and post colonial discourses Dialectics for the New Century B. Ollman, T. Smith, 2008-02-27 This anthology contains some of the more important Marxist thinkers now working on dialectics As a whole the book is an unusual Introduction to Dialectics a systematic restatement of what it is and how to use it a survey of most of the main debates in the field and a good picture of the current state of the art of dialectics The Dialectics of Faith in the Poetry of José Bergamín Helen Wing, 1995 A slightly revised version of a Ph D dissertation submitted to the University of Cambridge in September 1993 A Dialectical Journey through Fashion and Philosophy Eun Jung Kang, 2020-01-01 This book takes an in depth look at the integration of fashion and philosophy It challenges the deeply rooted prejudice or misconception that fashion is a field limited to body oriented and appearance related themes and practices It also reveals that fashion is intermeshed with distinctively modern issues that belong to the realm of the mind as well as the body In doing so it refashions philosophy and philosophizes fashion which ultimately amount to the same thing The book argues that while the philosophization of fashion can give a clearer understanding of some esoteric areas of philosophy and fashion s close connection to modern societies and politics it also shows that philosophy can assist in redeeming fashion from the objective bodily world positioning it as an indispensable part of the humanities This is because fashion manifests critical aspects of human culture in our time and is an expression of the zeitgeist which is interwoven with the unfolding of history This book will be highly relevant to students and researchers in fashion studies who are looking for the theoretical underpinnings and insights for their own work It will also be of keen interest to scholars in the field of philosophy who are seeking to apply philosophical concepts to both everyday life and our empirical world The Many Valued and Nonmonotonic Turn in Logic Dov M. Gabbay, John Woods, 2007-08-13 The present volume of the Handbook of the History of Logic brings together two of the most important developments in 20th century non classical logic These are many valuedness and non monotonicity On the one approach in deference to vagueness temporal or quantum indeterminacy or reference failure sentences that are classically non bivalent are allowed as inputs and outputs to consequence relations Many valued dialethic fuzzy and quantum logics are among other things principled attempts to regulate the flow through of sentences that are neither true nor false On the second or non monotonic approach constraints are placed on inputs and sometimes on outputs of a classical consequence relation with a view to producing a notion of consequence that serves in a more realistic way the requirements of real life inference Many valued logics produce an interesting problem Non bivalent inputs produce classically valid consequence statements for any choice of outputs A major task of many valued logics of all stripes is to fashion an appropriately non classical relation of consequence The chief preoccupation of non monotonic and default logicians is how to constrain inputs and outputs of the consequence relation In what is called left non monotonicity it is forbidden to add new sentences to the inputs of true consequence statements The restriction takes notice of the fact that new information will sometimes override an antecedently and reasonably derived consequence In what is called right non monotonicity limitations are imposed on outputs of the consequence relation Most notably perhaps is the requirement that the rule of introduction not be given free sway on outputs Also prominent is the effort of paraconsistent logicians both preservationist and dialethic to limit the outputs of inconsistent inputs which in classical contexts are wholly unconstrained In some instances our two themes coincide Dialethic logics are a case in point Dialethic logics allow certain selected sentences to have as a third truth value the classical values of truth and falsity together So such logics also admit classically inconsistent inputs A central task is to construct a right non monotonic consequence relation that allows for these many valued and inconsistent inputs The Many Valued and Non Monotonic Turn in Logic is an indispensable research tool for anyone interested in the development of logic including researchers graduate and senior undergraduate students in logic history of logic mathematics history of mathematics computer science AI linguistics cognitive science argumentation theory and the history of ideas Detailed and comprehensive chapters covering the entire range of modal logic Contains the latest scholarly discoveries and interpretative insights that answers many questions in the field of logic
