Carswell,2016-06-16 Sixteen year old Beth was ignorantly happy That changed over spring break of her grade eleven year Her mother kills herself her boyfriend of over a year becomes abusive and she finds herself falling in love with a boy she just met Being a teenager is hard enough as it is add a dead mom to the mix plus a younger sister to take care of and it becomes a living hell Diary From a German Officer's "House of Memories" Warren J. Luedtke,2010-04-30 The House of Memories is a fictional story of what might have been A WWII German officer disillusioned with the war and the useless deaths of multitudes of men and citizens both his and Germany s enemies emigrate to the United States and meets his male cousin for the first time His cousin sells him his homestead in Door County Wisconsin where a wonderful life is lived out 1945: The Reckoning Phil Craig,2025-04-24 As the fate of the world is decided so too is that of the British Dutch and French empires In India a generation committed to independence must decide whether to support the Raj or fight alongside the Japanese One military family is bitterly divided Will it be the brother who serves under British command or the one who follows Subhas Chandra Bose and his Indian National Army who goes on to help build a new and free India In Borneo a little known Australian special forces campaign secretly controlled from London goes horribly wrong as questions are asked about whether its true purpose is military or imperial And in Indochina and the East Indies British Generals free and arm Japanese prisoners of war and use them in savage campaigns that aim to put colonial rulers back into their palaces Clearing away the haze of nostalgia many uncomfortable truths emerge but so too does a humane and balanced exploration of what victory in the Second World War truly means Publications of the Virginia War History Commission: Virginia war letters, diaries and editorials Virginia War History Commission,1925 Generalissimo Jonathan Fenby,2003 Following his acclaimed studies of the state of modern France and how Hong Kong has changed since the 1997 handover Jonathan Fenby now turns his attention to one of the most interesting yet under reported figures of twentieth century history Chiang Kai shek was the man who lost China to the Communists As leader of the nationalist movement the Kuomintang Chiang established himself as head of the government in Nanking in 1928 Yet although he laid claim to power throughout the 1930s and was the only Chinese figure of sufficient stature to attend a conference with Churchill and Roosevelt during the Second World War his desire for unity was always thwarted by threats on two fronts Between them the Japanese and the Communists succeeded in undermining Chiang s power plays and after Hiroshima it was Mao Zedong who ended up victorious Brilliantly re creating pre Communist China in all its colour danger and complexity Jonathan Fenby s magisterial survey of this brave but unfulfilled life is destined to become the definitive account in the English language Black and White and Dead All Over John Darnton,2009-08-11 A powerful editor is found dead in the newsroom stabbed with the very spike he would use to kill stories and in the cutthroat offices of The New York Globe anyone could be the murderer Could it be the rival newspaper tycoon The bumbling publisher The steely executive editor As more bodies turn up it will fall on Priscilla Bollingsworth a young and ambitious NYPD detective and Jude Hurley a clever and rebellious reporter to navigate the ink infested waters of the case A cunning and pitch perfect portrait of the declining newspaper industry this rollicking novel entertains from the first to the last

Grace & Power Sally Bedell Smith, 2011-08-15 Unlike so many other books Grace and Power rejects gossip and conspiracy theory to tell the story of John and Jackie's three years in the White House soberly comprehensively and sensitively from beginning to sudden end Sally Bedell Smith's book on John and Jackie Kennedy was hailed by authoritative reviewers on both sides of the Atlantic as the most distinguished and well written book on a perennially fascinating subject for years In the US the hardback was high on the New York Times bestseller list for weeks It is an immensely poignant chronicle of pivotal historical events seen from the inside out from within the private home of the President and First Lady Amidst the superficial opulence of their social circle we see the Cuban Missile Crisis and the burgeoning American civil rights movement from the perspective of an invalid president often barely well enough to appear in public Together with his young wife abandoned by her husband's relentless womanising nevertheless changed the politics and style of America Grace and Power is the classic account of that time

U-Boat War Patrol Lawrence Paterson, 2020-01-31 A book of rare photographs detailing life aboard a German Second World War submarine from the author of Operation Colossus History Today This unique account charts the complete story of a single U boat patrol through the summer of 1942 based around a remarkable collection of photographs that were liberated from a concrete U boat pen in Brest at the end of the war and which had until recently remained hidden in a shoe box The boat in question U 564 carried the famous three black cat motif of Reinhard Teddy Suhren who along with Prien and Kretschmer was one of the top U boat commanders during the battles of the Atlantic This remarkable book provides unique access into both the day to day life of a U boat at sea and into the detailed workings of the Kriegsmarine Through the successes and trials of U 564 the reader is transported to that vast and watery battlefield that was perhaps the most significant theatre of the Second World War The text tells the story of U 564 and the images display the cramped conditions and the way of life on a war patrol This is an absorbing story with the most memorable and unique collection of images filmed under patrol conditions Firetrench
