The Highland Railway David Charles Standard Railway Histories:

An Historical Geography of Railways in Great Britain and Ireland David Turnock, 2016-12-05 Although a great deal has been published on the economic social and engineering history of nineteenth century railways the work of historical geographers has been much less conspicuous This overview by David Turnock goes a long way towards restoring the balance It details every important aspect of the railway s influence on spatial distribution of economic and social change providing a full account of the nineteenth century geography of the British Isles seen in the context of the railway The book reviews and explains the shape of the developing railway network beginning with the pre steam railways and connections between existing road and water communications and the new rail lines The author also discusses the impact of the railways on the patterns of industrial urban and rural change throughout the century Throughout the historical geography of Ireland is treated in equal detail to that of Great Britain

The Highland Railway H. A. Vallance, 1969 British railway enthusiasm Ian Carter, 2017-10-03 Now available in paperback this is the first academic book to study railway enthusiasts in Britain Far from a trivial topic the post war train spotting craze swept most boys and some girls into a passion for railways and for many ignited a lifetime s interest British railway enthusiasm traces this post war cohort and those which followed as they invigorated different sectors in the world of railway enthusiasm train spotting railway modelling collecting railway relics and then in response to the demise of main line steam traction Britain s now huge preserved railway industry Today this industry finds itself riven by tensions between preserving a loved past which ever fewer people can remember and earning money from tourist visitors The widespread and enduring significance of railway enthusiasm will ensure that this groundbreaking text remains a key work in transport studies and will appeal to enthusiasts as much as to students and scholars of transport and cultural history

The Railway Magazine , 1986 A World History of Railway Cultures, 1830-1930 Matthew Esposito, 2021-08-29 A World History of Railway Cultures 1830 1930 is the first collection of primary sources to historicize the cultural impact of railways on a global scale from their inception in Great Britain to the Great Depression Its dual purpose is to promote understanding of complex historical processes leading to globalization and generate interest in transnational and global comparative research on railways In four volumes organized by historical geography this scholarly collection gathers rare out of print published and unpublished materials from archival and digital repositories throughout the world It adopts a capsule approach that focuses on short selections of significant primary source content instead of redundant and irrelevant materials found in online data collections The current collection draws attention to railway cultures through railroad reports parliamentary papers government documents police reports public health records engineering reports technical papers medical surveys memoirs diaries travel narratives ethnographies newspaper articles editorials pamphlets broadsides paintings cartoons engravings photographs art ephemera and passages from novels and poetry collections that shed light on the cultural history of railways The editor s original essays and headnotes on the cultural politics of railways introduce over 200 carefully selected primary sources Students and researchers come to understand railways not as applied technological impositions of industrial capitalism but powerful fluid and idiosyncratic historical constructs The County Donegal Railways Edward Mervyn Patterson,1982 Scottish Railway History in Pictures John Thomas,1967 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,1986 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964
