The Holy Sites Of Jordan:

The Holy Sites of Jordan Hasan ibn 'Alī Saqqāf,1999 The Holy Sites of Jordan ,1996 The Holy Sites of Jordan Turab,2007 Maqāmāt Al-Urdun Abla Muhtadi Zibdeh,1999 The Palgrave Handbook of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan P. R. Kumaraswamy,2019-11-30 This Handbook presents a broad yet nuanced portrait of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan its socio political rifts economic challenges foreign policy priorities and historical complexities The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has traditionally been an oasis of peace and stability in the ever turbulent Middle East The political ambitions of regional powers often expressed in the form of territorial aggrandisement have followed the Hashemites like an inseparable shadow The scarcity of natural resources especially water has been compounded by the periodic influx of refugees from its neighbours As a result many Arab and non Arab alike have questioned the longevity and survival of Jordan These uncertainties were compounded when the founding ruler King Abdullah I became involved in the nascent Palestinian problem at the end of World War II The annexation of the eastern part of Mandate Palestine or the West Bank in the wake of the 1948 War transformed the Jordanian demography and sowed the seeds of an uneasy relationship with the Palestinian component of its population citizens residents and refugees Though better natural resources and stronger leaders have not ensured political stability in many Arab and non Arab countries Jordan has been an exception Indeed since its formation as an Emirate by the British in 1921 the Kingdom has seen only four rulers a testimony to the sagacity and political foresight of the Hashemites The Hashemites have managed to sustain the semi rentier model primarily through international aid and assistance which in turn inhibits Jordan from pursuing rapid political and economic reforms Though a liberal multi religious and multicultural society Jordan has been hampered by social cleavages especially between the tribal population and the forces of modernization The Contest and Control of Jerusalem's Holy Sites Marshall J. Breger,Leonard M. Hammer,2023-08-17 The Holy Places of Jerusalem s Old City are among the most contested sites in the world and the ground zero of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Tensions regarding control are rooted in misperceptions over the status of the sites the role of external bodies such as religious organizations and civil society and misunderstanding regarding the political roles of the many actors associated with the sites In this volume Marshall J Breger and Leonard M Hammer clarify a complex and fraught situation by providing insight into the laws and rules pertaining to Jerusalem s holy sites Providing a compendium of important legal sources and broad form policy analysis they show how laws pertaining to Holy Places have been implemented and engaged The book weaves aspects of history politics and religion that have played a role in creation and identification of the law It also offers solutions for solving some of the central challenges related to the creation control and use of Holy Places in Jerusalem The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall,Girish Prayag,2019-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses communities

destinations and the wider socio political context It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism The book examines halal hospitality and lodging Islamic markets product developments heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism Hospitality Food Studies Marketing Religious Studies Geography Sociology and Islamic Studies Palestine, Its Holy Sites and Sacred History John Tillotson,1871 The Politics and Practices of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi,2014-04-21 During the nineteenth century cultural heritage became a dominant feature of the political ideology of the European states and of their colonies It became a new form of legitimization for the rising nation state cementing its inextricable link with that nation s politics and practices The set of concepts and practices defining cultural heritage were exported to and imposed over the colonized populations in North Africa and the Near East The legacy of the colonial period has proven very significant in the domain of cultural heritage which has become a crucial cultural arena in many Arab states As in the majorities of post colonial states in the Arab world the inherited paradigm of cultural heritage has been subject to various forms of adaption and re elaboration that have made it a lively and complex space of negotiations between various actors Thus in The Politics of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi and Rami Daher draw together expert scholars to unravel these complex processes that are involved in the definition production and consumption of heritage and its material culture in the Middle East and the dynamics of the key actors involved The variety of the cases analysed that cover the region from Morocco to Lebanon as well as the multiplicity of the actors concerned such as the state post colonial or colonial international organizations municipal councils local communities families and even exceptional personalities highlights and explores the complex processes where very local and specific dynamics intertwine with transnational economic political and cultural fluxes In its examination of the workings of cultural heritage in the Middle East this book is an important resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Cultural History History of Art and Architecture and for stakeholders involved in the field of cultural heritage Archaeological Ambassadors Elizabeth R. Macaulay,2024-03-01 This book investigates why nations with rich archaeological pasts like Egypt Greece and Jordan gave important antiquities often unique rare and highly valued monuments to New York City New York Institutions and the United States from 1879 to 1965 In addition to analyzing the givers motivations the author examines why New Yorkers and Americans coveted such objects The book argues that these gifted antiquities function as archaeological ambassadors and that the objects given were instruments of cultural diplomacy These gifts sought to advance the goals of Egypt Greece and Jordan all states that had rich cultural and archaeological heritages with the United States once an ascendent nation and then a global superpower to strengthen cultural economic and political relations
