

Homecoming

By Little Darcie Badger

The 3 big main traits that I think would describe Grace very well are educated, extrovert, and mature. Educated. I consider Grace an educated girl because she knew that she needed to stand up for her tribe and culture, so she took the matter in her own hands and decided to do something. She was able to have a chance to speak in front of the school about where she's from, all thanks to her friend Naomi and completed it without any problems. "My humanity is not up for debate. Xásteoyo." In other words, "my culture, traditions, and race are not to be argued about in a bad way. Thank you." Extrovert. Many people would say Grace is an introvert, but I think she's more of an extrovert. Grace was able to make new friends on the first day of school by being sociable and friendly to others and was also brave enough to express her feelings and thoughts to her school about where she's from and how her and her ancestors were all a part of the Lipan Apache tribe. Now that is a really impressive thing to do! Mature "The moment I left a place, I treated it's people like memories. Things of the past that gradually fade away until they might as well be faceless and nameless extras in the movie of my life." Mature is a big part of Grace because when she had to leave the people she loved behind, she decided not to be sad about it, and rather let it turn into special memories that will be kept with her forever. This explains how she's growing up and understanding that there are some things that she needs to give up on, but there are also new things to take in.
