The Homiletical Plot The Sermon As Narrative Art Form:

The Homiletical Plot, Expanded Edition Eugene L. Lowry, 2000-12-01 Now in reissue with a new foreword by Fred B Craddock and afterword by the author Eugene L Lowry The Homiletical Plot Expanded Edition follows in the same solid tradition of its predecessor Upon its release The Homiletical Plot quickly became a pivotal work on the art of preaching Instead of comments on a biblical passage Lowry suggested that the sermon follow a narrative form that moves from beginning to end as with the plot of a story This expanded edition continues to be an excellent teaching resource and learning tool for all preachers from introductory students to seasoned clergy The homiletical plot Eugene L. Lowry, 1980

The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus, 1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles SCM Studyguide: Preaching Peter Stevenson, 2017-02-20 A step by step guide to learning about preaching and more importantly how to craft and deliver a sermon It offers a student friendly jargon free introduction that requires no prior knowledge of the subject Arts and Preaching Sunggu A. Yang, 2021-09-03 In our highly sensory and interactive age how might drawing upon various arts music film architecture dramatic performance painting fashion and more expand the aesthetic experience and mode of preaching This book presents a critical practical answer to the question As our society becomes more visually oriented art seeking and body positive the practice of preaching is likewise challenged to demonstrate the mind body word visual and artistic proclamation of the Sacred after all isn't the writing of the Bible itself highly art full and aesthetic In this book Sunggu A Yang a seasoned preacher and experienced teacher of preaching encourages preachers to utilize their unique artistic talents as critical sources of theological and homiletical imagination and as hermeneutical perspectival tools to aid their rigorous exegetical process of interpreting Scripture eventually toward artistic holistic sermon composition and delivery A sample syllabus included in the appendix will greatly assist any preaching instructor who wants to offer a creative course on arts and preaching The Renewed

Homiletic O. Wesley Allen, 2010-04-21 The major shift in the study and practice of preaching in the 1970s and 1980s labeled the New Homiletic turned toward the hearer The purpose of preaching focused less on persuasion and more on transformation less on asserting religious truths and more on offering an experience of the gospel Instead of viewing language as referential its creative evocative nature began to be emphasized Thus homiletical strategies utilizing induction celebration story narrative structures and moves replaced a deductive propositional approach to preaching Now three and a half decades after this shift began preachers recognize that the homiletical landscape has continued to evolve in ways that influence how preaching ought to be done for example the rise of postmodernity the decline of the mainline church cultural pluralism and biblical and theological illiteracy Those considered to be the pillars of the New Homiletic David Buttrick Fred Craddock Eugene Lowry Henry Mitchell and Charles Rice discuss how to change their homiletical approach for a new day Each of these distinguished scholars offers a lecture describing how his mind has changed preaches a sermon reflecting these changes and participates in a panel discussion with younger respondents Publisher description A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today's culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God's message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger Richard Lischer Thomas Long Elaine Lawless Jolyon Mitchell Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger Preaching Jesus Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 The post liberal cultural linguistic theology of the Yale School has been one of the most important theological developments in the United States during the latter twentieth century In this unique book which combines theological analysis and homiletical reflection Charles Campbell examines post liberal theology as it is embodied in the work of Hans Frei and develops the implications of this theological position for the theory and practice of preaching Arguing that the trouble with homiletics today is fundamentally theological Campbell offers Frei's theological position as a means for enriching the Christian pulpit and renewing the church Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann

Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation
