The Human Life Of Jesus:

A Real Human Life Michael J. Wolfe, 2018-11-15 The book God gave Mike to write is so practical The section on the sin nature is probably the most important section of the book helping explain the struggle with why we still sin Mike has put into words what I have never heard articulated Linda Sarver Milken National Educator 2003 contributor to teacher s edition of America the Last Best Hope by Bill Bennett and follower of Jesus for 61 years If you are struggling with finding how to live the Christian life and long to discover the secret of the victorious life this is the book you need to read Graham Stamford Bible Teacher and Evangelist Field Representative of Torchbearers and founder of SportsReach A Real Human Life reminds readers that the Lord Jesus lived a fully human life the way God intended and He is the only one who can live His life in us So each of us can live a real human life too if it is Christ living His life in us Many Christians churchgoers live in frustration and disappointment not seeing Bible sized things in their lives but they know God promises those things This book written from a pastor s perspective is a blue collar offering to help regular people deal with that frustration and disappointment A Real Human Life relies on the Scripture to lay out a logical and biblical case for the reality of Christ in you the hope of glory and the subsequent human life He produces The Human Life of Jesus John Erskine, 1945 Conformed to Christ's

Death Witness Lee, 2024-03-29 Philippians 3 10 speaks of the power of Christ s resurrection the fellowship of His sufferings and the matter of being conformed to His death In this booklet compiled from Life study of Philippians Witness Lee presents the relationship among these matters our spiritual experience and the resurrection the apostle Paul refers to in verse 11

The Humanity of Christ James P. Haley, 2017-10-12 This work is a critical analysis of Karl Barth s unique adoption of the concepts anhypostasis and enhypostasis to explain Christ s human nature in union with the Logos which becomes the ontological foundation that Barth uses to explain Jesus Christ as very God and very man The significance of these concepts in Barth s Christology first emerges in the G ttingen Dogmatics and is then more fully developed throughout the Church Dogmatics Barth s unique coupling together of anhypostasis and enhypostasis provides the ontological grounding flexibility and precision that so uniquely characterizes his Christology As such Barth expresses the Word became flesh as the revelation of God that flows out of the coalescence of Christ s human nature with his divine nature as the mediation of reconciliation This ontological dynamic provides the impetus for Barth s critique of Chalcedon s static definition of the union of divine and human natures in Christ from which Barth transitions to an active definition of these two natures Not only does anhypostasis and enhypostasis explain the dynamic union between the divine and human natures in Christ but also the dynamic union between Jesus Christ and his Church which reaches its apex in the reconciliation of humanity with God in Christ The ontological foundation of anhypostasis and enhypostasis in Christ s union with his Church explains the importance of the royal man in understanding genuine human nature the exaltation of human nature and the sanctification of human nature

The Human Life of Jesus; Or, Daily Life Led in Union with Jesus ... , 1892 God, Freedom, and the Body of Christ

Alexander J. D. Irving, 2020-10-13 A contribution to the end of the Church knowing itself as the body of Christ Irving articulates a theology of the Church as that which participates in all that Jesus is in his vicarious humanity by the power of the Spirit This is developed through a dialogical or covenantal frame that has its focal point in Christ in whom the faithful love of God toward creation and the faithful love of creation toward God is actualized The Church as the body of Christ participates in the mediatorial work of Jesus Christ Each chapter explores a different element of this participatory ecclesiology This book offers a constructive ecclesiology built from the ground up on the foundation of a dialogical perspective which has participation in Christ as its controlling center This foundation provides the basis upon which an exhilarating vision of the Church can be built to encourage Christians to cherish the Church as the body of Christ which participates in the triune communion through being included into the Son by the power of the Spirit and comes to reflect the triune God in its own structures Person, Personhood, and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim, 2021-05-19 The quest for an understanding of humanness has been significant As the ways in which we recognize and define our human being have significant impact wide ranging discussions and questions about the human have taken place with significant theoretical and practical implications In Person Personhood and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim explores Thomas F Torrance s critiques of the dualist and individualistic views concerning human beings in the history of philosophy and theology This book sheds important light on Torrance s understanding of humans as persons in relation the trinitarian personhood as the ontological foundation for human personhood and the humanity of Christ as key to the personalization necessary for a new moral ethical and social life This presents a Christocentric anthropology and ethics which focuses on Christ s ongoing reconciling and humanizing ministry for us Fully Human in Christ Todd H. Speidell, 2016-11-08 Thomas F Torrance s theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God s grace which encompasses sustains and transforms the entire human and created order A trinitarian incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes projects and agendas however noble they might be but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us The Claim of Humanity in Christ Alexandra Sophie Radcliff, 2016-02-26 Today much preaching and teaching throws people back upon themselves to earn their relationship with God and to try to achieve by their own efforts the kind of person that they ought to be In The Claim of Humanity in Christ Alexandra Radcliff counters the Torrances critics to show the significance of their controversial understanding of salvation for the interface between systematic and pastoral theology Radcliff then constructively extends the implications of the Torrances work to a liberating doctrine of sanctification The Christian life is conceived as the free and joyful gift of sharing by the Spirit in the Son s intimate communion with the Father whereby we are turned out of ourselves to reflect the reality of who we are in Christ
