

The Human Self

Guillaume Favre

The Human Self:

Human Self Athar Saeed Naqvi, PhD, 2018-02-20 Unlike most theories of the human self that are generally based on conjecture this book describes a new scientific theory of the human self and its states of consciousness This theory is formulated using the revealed knowledge found in the Holy Scriptures along with the principles of physics In a quest for the ultimate truth the book attempts to understand the relationship between man and his Creator Dr Naqvi describes the universal principle of complementarity of creation that shows that the world of matter is not mutually exclusive to the spirit world but both are complementary to each other The three major holy scriptures of monotheistic faith describe the human spirit as a breath from the spirit of God It is termed divine spark in man The book explains that the divine spark is a seed of divine attributes of truth goodness compassion and justice A major outcome of this notion is that all humans are equal members of the family of God irrespective of race color or creed and deserving mutual respect and compassion Questions are answered about the origin of human spirit purpose of human creation spirit matter interaction and the basis of ethics Findings of prominent neurosurgeons show that the spirit soul is an autonomous entity that can exist without a physical vehicle which takes the inquisitive reader into a mind blowing conclusion This book is a response to the growing need among academics and thinking masses for scientific explanations of spirituality psychology philosophy mysticism religion and paranormal phenomena Over the past twenty five years the author has presented the theory in various universities in psychology and theology departments globally This book may serve as course material for university level psychology philosophy and theology departments In brief the unique theory presented in this book can be described as the science of spirituality

Aquinas on Human Self-Knowledge Therese Scarpelli Cory, 2014 A study of Aquinas's theory of self knowledge situated within the mid thirteenth century debate and his own maturing thought on human nature Ontopoietic Expansion in Human Self-Interpretation-in-Existence Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 The societal web of life is underpinned by one concept that of Self and Other which emerged earlier in this century The concept has received a new formulation within the field of the phenomenology of life and the human creative condition finding a foothold a point of reference that radiates novel seminal insights It is nothing other than the creative fulcrum of human functioning The self individualisation of the human being as revealed in the present collection is existentially and vitally intertwined with that of the Other Tymieniecka's seminal idea of the trans actional is explored in this collection of essays which reveals a variety of significant perspectives weaving the cycles of the human universe of existence in an essential oscillation between the Self and the Other In this oscillation we throw out our existential tentacles trying to gain a living space with respect to each other all the while engaging in a mutual creative prompting and attunement

Creative Virtualities in Human Self-Interpretation-in-Culture Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 It would seem that modern humanity has unthroned the human spirit undercutting the very foundation of the validity of truth moral values and principles There appears to be no attempt to discern what is beautiful and true it is functional and pragmatic usefulness that seem to dominate human evaluations and transactions with other humans and indeed animals Humanity is becoming detached from the higher aesthetic moral and intellectual works of the human spirit and thus the life of the spirit is often situated on the other side of a gulf opposed to science with its rationality Culture is in danger of becoming reduced to science In other words the great metaphysical questions those of telos of sense often are answered in terms of scientific conceptions But these are at least incomplete if not fragmentary and in principle hypothetical which still leaves the questions unanswered But it is culture that is the manifestation of the human spirit being the historical process of human self interpretation in existence All manifestations of the creative forge of the human being find a role in the fabric of culture which involves progressively widening circles of the human community demanding an integration and attunement with others in their changing conditions of life This consideration of culture involves all areas of philosophical reflection moral aesthetic metaphysical epistemological semiological cognitive and more

Divine Self, Human Self Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad, 2013-07-04 Winner of the Best Book in Hindu Christian Studies Prize 2013 2014 from the Society for Hindu Christian Studies The Gita is a central text in Hindu traditions and commentaries on it express a range of philosophical theological positions Two of the most significant commentaries are by Sankara the founder of the Advaita or Non Dualist system of Vedic thought and by Ramanuja the founder of the Visistadvaita or Qualified Non Dualist system Their commentaries offer rich resources for the conceptualization and understanding of divine reality the human self being the relationship between God and human and the moral psychology of action and devotion This book approaches their commentaries through a study of the interaction between the abstract atman self and the richer conception of the human person While closely reading the Sanskrit commentaries Ram Prasad develops reconstructions of each philosophical theological system drawing relevant and illuminating comparisons with contemporary Christian theology and Western philosophy

Human Self-Creation Juha Hämmäläinen, 2023-11-25 This book offers an overview of the educational thinking of Paul Natorp a key neo Kantian philosopher and leading educational theorist of Neo Kantianism by illustrating the philosophical foundations of his pedagogical argumentation and the main features of his theory of education It is intended for anyone interested in the philosophy of education and seeking to understand the importance of education in human existence Written in an accessible style it does not require previous studies in the philosophy of education but it offers in depth pedagogical reflection for advanced level students and researchers of educational theory The descriptive approach of the book presents a well founded interpretation of Natorp s educational thinking The depiction relies primarily on Natorp s own writings and also draws on secondary literature appropriate to the topic Very little material is available in English about Paul Natorp as an educationalist and his educational theory The book provides a significant added value for the scientific community of the philosophy of education and the history of educational ideas
