The Killing:

The Killing Wind Tan Hecheng, 2016-12-14 Over the course of 66 days in 1967 more than 4 000 class enemies including young children and the elderly were murdered in Daoxian a county in China's Hunan province The killings spread to surrounding counties resulting in a combined death toll of more than 9 000 Commonly known as the Daoxian massacre the killings were one of many acts of so called mass dictatorship and armed factional conflict that rocked China during the Cultural Revolution However in spite of the scope and brutality of the killings there are few detailed accounts of mass killings in China's countryside during the Cultural Revolution's most tumultuous years Years after the massacre journalist Tan Hecheng was sent to Daoxian to report on an official investigation into the killings Tan was prevented from publishing his findings in China but in 2010 he published the Chinese edition of The Killing Wind in Hong Kong Tan's first hand investigation of the atrocities accumulated over the course of more than 20 years blends his research with the recollections of survivors to provide a vivid account exploring how and why the massacre took place and describing its aftermath Dispelling the heroic aura of class struggle Tan reveals that most of the Daoxian massacre's victims were hard working peaceful members of the rural middle class blacklisted as landlords or rich peasants Tan also describes how political pressure and brainwashing turned ordinary people into heartless killing machines More than a catalog of horrors The Killing Wind is also a poignant meditation on memory moral culpability and the failure of the Chinese government to come to terms with the crimes of the Maoist era By painting a detailed portrait of this massacre Tan makes a broader argument about the long term consequences of the Cultural Revolution one of the most violent political movements of the twentieth century A compelling testament to the victims and survivors of the Daoxian massacre The Killing Wind is a monument to historical truth one that fills an immense gap in our understanding of the Mao era the Cultural Revolution and the status of truth in contemporary China

The Killing Consensus Graham Denyer Willis, 2015-03-21 We hold many assumptions about police work that it is the responsibility of the state or that police officers are given the right to kill in the name of public safety or self defense But in The Killing Consensus Graham Denyer Willis shows how in S o Paulo Brazil killing and the arbitration of normal killing in the name of social order are actually conducted by two groups the police and organized crime both operating according to parallel logics of murder Based on three years of ethnographic fieldwork Willis's book traces how homicide detectives categorize two types of killing the first resulting from resistance to police arrest which is often broadly defined and the second at the hands of a crime family known as the Primeiro Comando da Capital PCC Death at the hands of police happens regularly while the PCC's centralized control and strict moral code among criminals has also routinized killing ironically making the city feel safer for most residents In a fractured urban security environment where killing mirrors patterns of inequitable urbanization and historical exclusion along class gender and racial lines Denyer Willis's research finds that the city's cyclical periods of peace and violence can best be understood through an unspoken but mutually observed consensus on the right to kill This consensus hinges on common notions and street level practices of who can die where how and by whom revealing an empirically distinct configuration of authority that Denyer Willis calls sovereignty by consensus

USA Today bestselling author Ralph Compton It was the 1870s Jesse and Frank James led daring raids on banks and trains Doc Holliday's name struck dread in the hearts of men and Wild Bill Hickok played poker with bullets in the hole A young killer named Billy the Kid was hunted by a determined lawman and a General named Custer took the Seventh Cavalry into Dakota Territory One man rides this untamed frontier like a shadow of death His name is Nathan Stone and he had learned to kill on the vengeance trail He would have stopped after settling the score with his parents' savage slayers But when you're the greatest gunfighter of all there's no peace or resting place And it's Nathan Stone's destiny to fight for survival against the most famed and feared figures from Texas to the Black Hills on both sides of the law More Than Six Million Ralph Compton Books In Print Beyond the Killing Fields Sydney Hillel Schanberg, 2010 Warfare defence The killing of the Beasts Paul Weightman, 2020-01-20 Aleksandar Borko a 38 year old Serbian immigrant and 36 year old Lucas Frayne an American born citizen Right from an early age Borko and Frayne had unusual and sadistic appetites for all manner of twisted and vile acts of torture and murder For years the death toll of their victims escalated between 2008 to 2018 Will The FBI and Law enforcement agencies capture them The Killing of Bonnie Garland Willard Gaylin, 1995-09-01 A powerful and passionate indictment of the use of psychiatric testimony in criminal cases The Cleveland Plain Dealer A year after Richard Herrin confessed to killing his girlfriend Bonnie Garland he was found not guilty of murder His crime he pleaded was committed under extreme emotional disturbance excusing him from maximum responsibility He was convicted on the reduced charge of manslaughter In this incisive examination of the murder the trial and its aftermath a distinguished psychiatrist addresses the issue of the insanity defense He shows how psychiatric testimony can distort court proceedings and brilliantly analyzes the conflict between the individual rights of the accused and society's right to justice Invitation to Madness (The Killing Game--Book 2) Jaden Skye, 2016-01-08 Two young female patients are found dead in a semi private mental hospital in Queens Each is found on the floor in their rooms jugulars slashed The hospital classifies them as suicides but when a third patient is found dead a terrifying question arises is there a serial killer on the loose in the hospital The FBI Behavioral Unit calls in its star criminal profiler Tracy Wrenn to provide her unique insights to crack the case Immersed in the world of the hospital Tracy encounters a wide array of disturbing and perplexing characters each with their own level of psychosis Tracy must plunge into the depths of the disturbed minds of both inmates and staff as she tries to sort out what is real and what is fantasy and as she begins to learn just how twisted the human mind can be A shocking twist culminates in an ending Tracy can never expect as she finds herself on the brink and can only hope to return Book 3 in The Killing Game will be released soon Targeted Killings Claire Finkelstein, Jens David Ohlin, Andrew Altman, 2012-03-01 The war on terror is remaking conventional warfare The protracted battle against a non state organization the demise of the confinement of hostilities to an identifiable battlefield the extensive involvement of civilian combatants and the development of new and more precise military technologies have all conspired to require a rethinking of the law and morality of war Just war theory as traditionally articulated seems ill suited to justify many of the practices of the war on terror The raid against Osama Bin Laden s Pakistani compound was the highest profile example of this strategy but the issues raised by this technique cast a far broader net every week the U S military and CIA launch remotely piloted drones to track suspected terrorists in hopes of launching a missile strike against them In addition to the public condemnation that these attacks have generated in some countries the legal and moral basis for the use of this technique is problematic Is the U S government correct that nations attacked by terrorists have the right to respond in self defense by targeting specific terrorists for summary killing Is there a limit to who can legitimately be placed on the list There is also widespread disagreement about whether suspected terrorists should be considered combatants subject to the risk of lawful killing under the laws of war or civilians protected by international humanitarian law Complicating the moral and legal calculus is the fact that innocent bystanders are often killed or injured in these attacks This book addresses these issues Featuring chapters by an unrivalled set of experts it discusses all aspects of targeted killing making it unmissable reading for anyone interested in the implications of this practice

Principal Structures and Methods of Representation Theory Dmitrii Petrovich Zhelobenko, The main topic of this book can be described as the theory of algebraic and topological structures admitting natural representations by operators in vector spaces These structures include topological algebras Lie algebras topological groups and Lie groups The book is divided into three parts Part I surveys general facts for beginners including linear algebra and functional analysis Part II considers associative algebras Lie algebras topological groups and Lie groups along with some aspects of ring theory and the theory of algebraic groups The author provides a detailed account of classical results in related branches of mathematics such as invariant integration and Lie s theory of connections between Lie groups and Lie algebras Part III discusses semisimple Lie algebras and Lie groups Banach algebras and quantum groups This is a useful text for a wide range of specialists including graduate students and researchers working in mathematical physics and specialists interested in modern representation theory It is suitable for independent study or supplementary reading Also available from the AMS by this acclaimed author is Compact Lie Groups and Their Representations

New Frontiers in Gravitational Collapse and Spacetime Singularities Daniele Malafarina, Pankaj S. Joshi, 2024-05-02 The book collects a series of articles to review the advances that have been made in the field of gravitational collapse in general relativity and alternative theories of gravity in the past few years Many approaches to black hole and singularity formation in general relativity and beyond have been proposed over the last few decades The importance of collapse models is that they provide natural thought experiments where to test the behavior and properties of a variety of approaches to general relativity and its implications for ultra compact objects in the universe

American Law Reports Annotated, 1922 Ethical futures: bioscience and food horizons Kate Millar, Pru Hobson West, Brigitte Nerlich, 2023-09-04 In an ever changing interconnected world the agriculture and food system faces constant challenges in many forms such as the impacts of climate change uncertainty surrounding the use of novel technologies and the emergence of new zoonotic diseases. Alongside these challenges, professionals working in the food system are faced with opportunities to improve food production and distribution. As decision makers attempt to balance these threats and opportunities in order to secure more sustainable production systems, the key question that arises is: What do we envisage as the future for agriculture and food production? With numerous voices advocating different and sometimes conflicting approaches ranging from organic farming to wider use of GMOs through in vitro meat production, this discussion of the future raises significant ethical questions. The contributions in this book bring together a diverse group of authors who explore a set of themes relating to the ethical dimensions of the agriculture and food futures, including the role of novel technologies, the potential issues raised by the use of biofuels, the ethics of future animal production systems, concepts of global food security as well as chapters on food governance, priorities and educational aspects. It is intended that this volume serves as an interesting collection and acts as a source of stimulation that will contribute to wider debate and reflection on the future of the agriculture and food system.

The 9/11 Effect Kent Roach, 2011-08-15 This book critically and comparatively examines the responses of the United Nations and a range of countries to the terror attacks on September 11, 2001. It assesses the convergence between the responses of Western democracies including the United States, the United Kingdom, Australia, and Canada with countries with more experience with terrorism including Egypt, Syria, Israel, Singapore, and Indonesia. A number of common themes: the use of criminal law and immigration law, the regulation of speech associated with terrorism, the review of the state's whole of government counter terrorism activities, and the development of national security policies are discussed. The book provides a critical take on how the United Nations promoted terrorism financing laws and listing processes and the regulation of speech associated with terrorism but failed to agree on a definition of terrorism or the importance of respecting human rights while combating terrorism.

The Palgrave Handbook of Popular Culture as Philosophy Dean A. Kowalski, Chris Lay, Kimberly S. Engels, 2024-04-30

Much philosophical work on pop culture apologises for its use, using popular culture as a necessary evil, something merely useful for reaching the masses with important philosophical arguments. But works of pop culture are important in their own right: they shape worldviews, inspire ideas, change minds. We wouldn't balk at a book dedicated to examining the philosophy of The Great Gatsby or 1984, why aren't Star Trek and Superman fair game as well? After all, when produced, the former were considered pop culture just as much as the latter. This will be the first major reference work to right that wrong, gathering together entries on film, television, games, graphic novels, and comedy, and officially recognizing the importance of the field. It will be the go-to resource for students and researchers in philosophy, culture, media, and communications. English and history.
