The Ladies' Dispensatory Leonard Sowerby, 2003 Leonard Sowerby's self healing manual for women The Ladies Dispensatory emerged in England in 1652 amidst an abundance of medical self help books for the lay citizen Written for both the common patient and the amateur health provider these manuals of home remedies provided their readers with a variety of potential solutions to common ailments or disease Sowerby's Dispensatory was written primarily for curing women's health problems and in that regard focuses heavily on gynecologic problems the Dispensatory includes numerous preparations for inducing abortion breast complaints personal hygiene and cosmetic applications Balaban Erlen and Siderits have resurrected Sowerby's original manuscript and have provided both historical and medical explanation of its uses and usefulness From a common garlic remedy to fortify the brain to a hog's heel burned to powder for easing colic The Ladies Dispensatory is a delightfully unique look at health and hygiene in the seventeenth century Also includes nine maps The Ladies' Repository ,1852 The Ladies' Garland ,1838 the ladies treasury , The Ladies' Pearl ,1842 The Ladies' Companion ,1843 The Ladies Complete Letter-Writer (1763) Alain Kerhervé, 2020-05-22 How did people learn to write letters in the eighteenth century Among other books letter writing manuals provided a possible solution Although more than 160 editions can be traced for the eighteenth century most manuals were largely intended for men As a consequence when The Ladies Complete Letter Writer was released in London in 1763 it was the first manual to be exclusively destined for women in eighteenth century Britain Even though it was published anonymously several elements tend to show that it must have been edited by Edward Kimber It was reprinted in Dublin in 1763 and in London in 1765 and largely circulated The reasons for its success may have come from its concern in epistolary rhetoric its original organisation or the entertainment provided by examples coming from different sources among which letters by Eliza Haywood Samuel Richardson Mary Collier or the Marquise de Lambert It also provided women with a variety of subjects which were supposed to be part of their sphere of interest and others which were not thus questioning a number of pre conceived ideas on women and their way of writing with or without propriety Unedited since 1765 the manual is now presented with introduction notes and two indices focusing on the issues of sources society and epistolary writing The Ladies' pocket magazine ,1828
