Lynching Photographs Dora Apel,Shawn Michelle Smith,2007 A lucid smart engaging and accessible introduction to the impact of lynching photography on the history of race and violence in America Grace Elizabeth Hale author of Making Whiteness The Culture of Segregation in America 1890 1940 With admirable courage Dora Apel and Shawn Michelle Smith examine lynching photographs that are horrifying shameful and elusive with admirable sensitivity they help us delve into the meaning and legacy of these difficult images They show us how the images change when viewed from different perspectives they reveal how the photographs have continued to affect popular culture and political debates and they delineate how the pictures produce a dialectic of shame and atonement Ashraf H A Rushdy author of Neo Slave Narratives and Remembering Generations This thoughtful and engaging book offers a highly accessible yet theoretically sophisticated discussion of a painful complicated and unavoidable subject Apel and Smith employing complementary and sometimes overlapping methodological approaches to reading these images impress upon us how inextricable photography and lynching are and how we cannot comprehend lynching without making sense of its photographic representations Leigh Raiford co editor of The Civil Rights Movement in American Memory Our newspapers have recently been filled with photographs of mutilated tortured bodies from both war fronts and domestic arenas How do we understand such photographs Why do people take them Why do we look at them The two essays by Apel and Smith address photographs of lynching but their analysis can be applied to a broader spectrum of images presenting ritual or spectacle killings Frances Pohl author of Framing America A Social History of American Art Creative Dynamics Christina Ljungberg,2012 How do readers make sense of a picture a photograph or a map in literary narratives in which visual signs play a critical role How do authors accomplish their various objectives in constructing such complex texts What strategies and techniques do they use to project fictional worlds and to provide their readers with the means for orienting themselves there This book investigates the dynamics of the imaginary diagrams created by cartographers photographers and writers of narratives giving ample evidence of how mapping practices have inspired the imagination of a vast number of authors from Thomas More up to contemporary writers A special focus is on the effects created by the projection of photographs into the narrative space and how our seemingly effortless interpretation of photographs and even maps masks complex cognitive processes The theoretical horizon of this study encompasses the fields of cartography mental maps iconicity research and the spatial turn in cultural studies Godey's Lady's Book ,1868
