Chase, 2024-02-10

Reprint of the original first published in 1883      Israel's Messenger ,1926      The Encyclopedia of Jewish Symbols Ellen Frankel,Betsy Patkin Teutsch,1995-11-01 Jewish symbols reflect the interaction of word and image within Jewish culture Jews have always studied interpreted and revered sacred texts they have also adorned the settings and occasions of sacred acts Calligraphy and ornamentation have transformed Hebrew letters into art quotation interpretation legend and wordplay have made ceremonial objects into narrative This book represents just such a collaboration between art and language Ellen Frankel and Betsy Platkin Teutsch writer and artist have brought their extensive knowledge and talents together to create The Encyclopedia of Jewish Symbols the first reference guide of its kind designed for use by educators artists rabbis folklorists feminists Jewish and non Jewish scholars and lay readers      Centennial Pamphlets: The Hebrew Bible and the Israelitish Nation American Bible Society,1916      1990, □□□□□ To Light the Sabbath Candles Christine Graef,2018-09-13 Keeping the Sabbath is the only commandment God called holy and said to remember The moment the women light the Sabbath candle we glimpse the boundless realm of the world to come as all work is put down and we meet with the Lord The flame reveals our distinctions and makes known our gifts a flame that spoke from Mount Sinai led the Israelites through the desert consumed offerings and anointed the new church Jesus said Come Let anyone who hears this say Come He opens his kingdom with generous hospitality an invitation to a place at the table for anyone called to reconcile the wild and natural branches of the olive tree Under the shared commandment to know God the radiance is drawing together a family at his table in an unprecedented movement bringing Jew and Gentile into the one new humanity Jesus prayed for us to be Sabbath is the only ritual listed in the ten commandments In it he has set a table before us in the presence of the enemy who tried to divide the wholeness of the body of Christ the feminine importance in bringing light and the sacredness of heritage      Parables and Rhetoric in the Sermon on the Mount Ernst Baasland,2015-07-27 Parable research has to a large degree ignored the Sermon on the Mount SM and for its part research into the SM has likewise left the parables by the wayside However the use of parabolic language in more than one third of the SM influences its interpretation and indeed opens up a new approach to it In the current volume Ernst Baasland focuses on this important factor whilst also taking the rhetoric of Jesus teaching into consideration The author maintains that rhetorical features have a great bearing on the interpretation of the text with the overall structure illuminating the entire composition of the sermon Fresh insights into its oration therefore serve to challenge the source problem in a new way The religious and philosophical settings of this most well known of Christ s preachings are clarified by its parables and rhetoric and the sermon s Jewish background has often been investigated While the author continues with that particular task he simultaneously affords more emphasis to the parallels in Greek Hellenistic literature The combining of all these factors leads to a clearer comprehension of the Sermon on the Mount s philosophy of life and provides a better understanding of this classical text      The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 5 Posen Library of Jewish culture and civilization (Lucerne, Switzerland),2023-03-21 The fifth volume of the Posen Library demonstrates through a rich array of texts and images the extraordinary diversity of Jewish life during the early modern period A rich and varied gateway into the primary source material of early modern Jewish history that is very strong on geographical diversity A magnificent achievement Adam Sutcliffe King s College London The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization Volume 5 covering the early modern period 1500 1750 presents a variety of Jewish texts to demonstrate the diversity of Jewish culture and life These texts originate from Eastern and Western Europe the Americas the Ottoman Empire North Africa Kurdistan Persia Yemen India in short a worldwide diaspora They embrace historical writing and religious scholarship liturgical expression and economic records ethics and personal devotion correspondence and communal regulations art and music architecture and poetry The simultaneous centrifugal and centripetal character of Jewish communities during this era illustrates the distinctiveness of the early modern period in Jewish history and informs developments in world history at large Including texts written by women a robust collection of images and extensive material not previously accessible to English language readers this volume is rich deep and enlightening

The Legends of the Jews and Judaism Louis Ginzberg,Israel Abrahams, The term Rabbinic was applied to the Jewish Literature of post Biblical times by those who conceived the Judaism of the later epoch to be something different from the Judaism of the Bible something actually opposed to it Such observers held that the Jewish nation ceased to exist with the moment when its political independence was destroyed For them the Judaism of the later epoch has been a Judaism of the Synagogue the spokesmen of which have been the scholars the Rabbis And what this phase of Judaism brought forth has been considered by them to be the product of the schools rather than the product of practical pulsating life Poetic phantasmagoria frequently the vaporings of morbid visionaries is the material out of which these scholars construct the theologic system of the Rabbis and fairy tales the spontaneous creations of the people which take the form of sacred legend in Jewish literature are denominated the Scriptural exegesis of the Rabbis and condemned incontinently as nugae rabbinorum As the name of a man clings to him so men cling to names For the primitive savage the name is part of the essence of a person or thing and even in the more advanced stages of culture judgments are not always formed in agreement with facts as they are but rather according to the names by which they are called The current estimate of Rabbinic Literature is a case in point With the label Rabbinic later ages inherited from former ages a certain distorted view of the literature so designated To this day and even among scholars that approach its investigation with unprejudiced minds the opinion prevails that it is purely a learned product And yet the truth is that the most prominent feature of Rabbinic Literature is its popular character The school and the home are not mutually opposed to each other in the conception of the Jews They study in their homes and they live in their schools Likewise there is no distinct class of scholars among them a class that withdraws itself from participation in the affairs of practical life Even in the domain of the Halakah the Rabbis were not so much occupied with theoretic principles of law as with the concrete phenomena of daily existence These they sought to grasp and shape And what is true of the Halakah is true with greater emphasis of the Haggadah which is popular in the double sense of appealing to the people and being produced in the main by the people To speak of the Haggadah of the Tannaim and Amoraim is as far from fact as to speak of the legends of Shakespeare and Scott The ancient authors and their modern brethren of the guild alike elaborate legendary material which they found at hand It has been held by some that the Haggadah contains no popular legends that it is wholly a factitious academic product A cursory glance at the pseudepigraphic literature of the Jews which is older than the Haggadah literature by several centuries shows how untenable this view is That the one literature should have drawn from the other is precluded by historical facts At a very early time the Synagogue disavowed the pseudepigraphic literature which was the favorite reading matter of the sectaries and the Christians Nevertheless the inner relation between them is of the closest kind The only essential difference is that the Midrashic form prevails in the Haggadah and the parenetic or apocalyptic form in the pseudepigrapha The common element must therefore depart from the Midrash on the one hand and from parenesis on the other
