Bill Warren

The Land Unknown:

THE LAND UNKNOWN László Görög, William N. Robson, 1957 The Land Unknown Gary Panter, 2011-01-01 Keep Watching the Skies! Bill Warren, 2017-01-12 Bill Warren's Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986. It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st Century Edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film. In addition to a detailed plot synopsis, full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film, Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making. The book contains 273 photographs, many rare, 35 in color, has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index. This book is also available in hardcover format. ISBN 978 0 7864 4230 0 Blake and Tradition Kathleen Raine, 2002 Blake and Tradition is an investigation of the sources of Blake's knowledge of the Neoplatonic and Hermetic tradition and allied currents of thought. The volumes contain what was then new information on Blake's vast fund of exact knowledge in these fields and Kathleen Raine interprets his works in the light of the ideas that originally inspired and informed them. The core of this important work of scholarship formed the A. W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts in 1962 at the National Gallery of Art in Washington. The expanded two-volume work was originally published by Routledge. Kegan Paul in 1969 The Dinosaur Filmography Mark F. Berry, 2015-08-31 From classics like King Kong to beloved B movies like The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms to blockbusters like Jurassic Park, it's easy to see that filmmakers and audiences alike love to see dinosaurs on the screen. This comprehensive filmography, arranged alphabetically by title, contains entries that include basic facts, year of release, country of origin, studio, and running time, followed by a concise plot summary, the author's critical commentary, information on the production and the people behind it, and secrets of the often ingenious special effects. Three useful appendices feature films with minor dinosaur content, planned but unfinished dinosaur movies, and the quasi-dinosaurs of Toho Studios. To be included, a movie must depict one or more representations of a prehistoric reptile. Inaccurate portrayals are included as long as the intent is to represent a real or fictional dinosaur. Not eligible are films featuring prehistoric mammals, prehistoric humans or humanoids, and beasts of mythology, unless of course the movie also has a dinosaur Return of the B Science Fiction and Horror Heroes Tom Weaver, 2000 The people who directed, produced, and starred in the scary and fantastic movies of the genre's heyday over thirty years ago created memorable experiences as well as memorable movies. This McFarland Classic brings together over fifty interviews with the directors, producers, actors, and make-up artists of science fiction and horror films of the 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s. From B movies to classics, Samuel Z. Arkoff to Acquanetta, these veteran vampire, swamp monster, and flying saucer attackees share their memories. This classic volume represents the union of two previous volumes, Interviews with B Science Fiction and Horror Movie Makers, more fun than the lovably cheap movies that inspired it. Booklist, RBB, and Science Fiction Stars and Horror Heroes candidly a must. ARBA. Together at last, this combined collection of interviews offers a candid and delightful perspective.

on the movies that still make audiences squeal with fear and occasionally howl with laughter The Temple of Deir El Bahari Edouard Naville,1894 Emerson's United States Magazine ,1857 Blake, Gender and Culture Helen P Bruder,2015-10-06 Blake s combination of verse and design invites interdisciplinary study The essays in this collection approach his work from a variety of perspectives including masculinity performance plant biology empire politics and sexuality William Blake as Natural Philosopher, 1788-1795 Joseph Fletcher,2021-12-07 William Blake as Natural Philosopher 1788 1795 takes seriously William Blake s wish to be read as a natural philosopher particularly in his early illuminated works and reveals the way that poetry and visual art were for Blake an imaginative way of philosophizing Blake s poetry and designs reveal a consistent preoccupation with eighteenth century natural philosophical debates concerning the properties of the physical world the nature of the soul and God s relationship to the material universe This book traces the history of these debates and examines images and ideas in Blake s illuminated books that mark the development of the monist pantheism which contends that every material thing is in its essence God to the idealism of his later period which casts the natural world as degenerate and illusory The book argues that Blake s philosophical thought was not as monolithic as has been previously characterized and that pantheism is important to understanding his early works because it entails an ethics that respects the interconnected divinity of all material objects not just humans which in turn spurns hierarchical power structures Prehistoric Antiquities of the Aryan Peoples ,1890 VOLUME 3 - JEREMIAH TO LAMENTATIONS Ann, Elegant Extracts Or Useful and Entertaining Passages in Prose and of Poetry ,1824 Catalogue of the Magnificent Library of the Late Hon. Henry C. Murphy--Supplement ... Henry Cruse Murphy,1884 Eco-Trauma Cinema Anil Narine,2014-09-19 Film has taken a powerful position alongside the global environmental movement from didactic documentaries to the fantasy pleasures of commercial franchises This book investigates in particular film s complex role in representing ecological traumas Eco trauma cinema represents the harm we as humans inflict upon our natural surroundings or the injuries we sustain from nature in its unforgiving iterations The term encompasses both circumstances because these seemingly distinct instances of ecological harm are often related and even symbiotic the traumas we perpetuate in an ecosystem through pollution and unsustainable resource management inevitably return to harm us Contributors to this volume engage with eco trauma cinema in its three general forms accounts of people who are traumatized by the natural world narratives that represent people or social processes which traumatize the environment or its species and stories that depict the aftermath of ecological catastrophe The films they examine represent a central challenge of our age to overcome our disavowal of environmental crises to reflect on the unsavoury forces reshaping the planet s ecosystems and to restructure the mechanisms responsible for the state of the earth Beyond Bible Basics Duncan Heaster,1999 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1957 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the
