Admirers of Empress Orchid will be interested in this sequel. Others may find the introduction to relatively modern Chinese history a revelation. Rocky Mountain News. During the tumultuous end of the nineteenth century in China the only constant was the power wielded by one person the resilient ever resourceful Tzu Hsi Lady Yehonala or Empress Orchid as readers came to know her in Anchee Min's critically acclaimed novel covering the first part of her life. In The Last Empress Orchid moves from the intimacy of the concubine quarters into the spotlight of the world stage. Devastating personal losses take their toll leaving her yearning to step aside but only she allied with the progressives but loyal to the conservative Manchu clan of her dynasty can hold the nation's rival factions together. Anchee Min offers a powerful revisionist portrait based on extensive research of one of the most important figures in Chinese history. Viciously maligned by the western press of the time as the Dragon Lady a manipulative blood thirsty woman who held onto power at all costs the woman Min gives us is a compelling very human leader who assumed power reluctantly and who sacrificed all she had to protect those she loved and an empire that was doomed to die. The vision of an empress who very nearly had it all vulnerability and strength motherhood and power earthiness and dignity compassion and ambition. The Washington Post. Invokes the intrigue and opulence of nineteenth century China while telling the story of its improbably dominant ruler. Los Angeles Times.

Mapping Modern Beijing Weijie Song, 2018 Mapping Modern Beijing investigates the five methods of representing Beijing: a warped hometown, a city of snapshots and manners, an aesthetic city, an imperial capital in comparative and cross-cultural perspective, and a displaced city on the Sinophone and diasporic postmemory by authors travelling across mainland China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and overseas Sinophone and non-Chinese communities. The metamorphosis of Beijing's everyday spaces and the structural transformation of private and public emotions unfold. Manchu writer Lao She's Beijing is complex about a warped native city. Zhang Henshui's popular snapshots of fleeting shocks and everlasting sorrows illustrate his affective mapping of urban transition and human manners in Republican Beijing. Female poet and architect Lin Huiyin captures an aesthetic and picturesque city vis-à-vis the political and ideological urban planning. The imagined imperial capital constructed in bilingual transcultural and comparative works by Lin Yutang, Princess Der Ling, and Victor Segalen highlights the pleasures and pitfalls of collecting local knowledge and presenting Orientalist and Cosmopolitan visions. In the shadow of World Wars and Cold War, a multilayered displaced Beijing appears in the Sinophone postmemory by diasporic Beijing native Liang Shiqiu, Taiwan sojourners Zhong Lihe and Lin Haiyin, and migrational martial arts novelist Jin Yong. In Hong Kong, Weijie Song situates Beijing in a larger context of modern Chinese language, urban imaginations, and charts the emotional topography of the city against the backdrop of the downfall of the Manchu Empire, the rise of modern nation-state, the 1949 great divide, and the formation of Cold War and globalizing world. Drawing from literary canons to exotic narratives, from modernist poetry to chivalric fantasy, from popular culture to urban planning, Song explores the complex nexus of urban spaces, archives of emotions, and literary topography of Beijing in its long journey from imperial capital to Republican city and to socialist metropolis.

A Bronx Teacher's Travels George Colon, 2017-12-19 A Bronx teacher trots the globe, floating down many rivers, climbing many mountains, from Europe to the Orient, in a quest to understand humanity. Walking the Bible in Israel, in the footsteps of Hebrew prophets and Jesus from Bethlehem down to the Via Dolorosa to Golgotha, past the remains of Solomon's Temple, and dipping his hand in the Jordan River, he ponders religion. Bathing in the Nile River like Moses, he dries his feet on the dry Saharan sands, but first he scales the pyramids in a search for answers to humanity's quest for immortality, before gazing on the pharaohs' mummies. Sailing down European rivers and trudging through many bloodstained roads, he ponders man's inhumanity to man. Then scaling the Great Wall of China, he remembers the poet Robert Frost's words: "Something there is that doesn't love a wall." Before sailing down the Yangtze River, breaking down walls in his classroom, he teaches tolerance and understanding.
