The Last Museum:

The Last Museum Brion Gysin, 1986-01 Beyond the Glass Case Nick Merriman, 2016-09-16 The book is the result of a nationwide survey in the UK that measured public use of and attitudes to the past archaeology and collecting The author reviews this research in the light of contemporary theory on ideology and representation and goes on to develop a convincing explanation for the failure of museums and similar institutions to connect with the majority of the public Merriman marshals the empirical and theoretical work to make a powerful case for a new approach to attract the under served populations one which encourages a view of the museum as a service helping its public to see understand and engage with its own personal local and multi faceted past The Museum, 1925 Museum publications Jan 1929 v 2 p 28 32 The British Museum's Excavations at Nineveh, 1846-1855 Geoffrey Turner, 2020-10-12 Geoffrey Turner has written the definitive study of the mid 19th century excavations sponsored by the British Museum at the ancient Assyrian site of Nineveh in Iraq Based on exhaustive analysis of unpublished archives combined with his own extensive knowledge of Assyrian architecture Turner's work documents the complete history of these excavations Turner also draws on the archives and numerous additional sources to provide a detailed reconstruction of the architecture and relief sculpture in the building that was the primary focus of these excavations the Southwest Palace of Sennacherib ruled 705 681 BC The result constitutes the final report both on the results of these excavations and on the original appearance of one of the ancient world's most famous buildings

Museum Documentation Systems Richard B. Light, D. Andrew Roberts, Jennifer D. Stewart, 2014-05-27 Museum Documentation Systems Nothing Is True-Everything Is Permitted John Geiger, 2005-06-01 The multimedia artist poet and novelist Brion Gysin may be the most influential cultural figure of the twentieth century that most people have never heard of Gysin 1916 1986 was an English born Canadian raised naturalized American of Swiss descent who lived most of his life in Morocco and France He went everywhere when the going was good He dabbled with surrealism in Paris in the 1930s lived in the interzone of Tangier in the 1950s and traveled the Algerian Sahara with Sheltering Sky author Paul Bowles before moving into the legendary Beat Hotel in Paris Gysin's ideas influenced generations of artists musicians and writers among them David Bowie Keith Haring Patti Smith Michael Stipe Genesis P. Orridge John Giorno and Brian Jones of the Rolling Stones None was touched more profoundly than William S. Burroughs who said admiringly of Gysin There was something dangerous about what he was doing It was Gysin who introduced the Rolling Stones to the exotica of Morocco and took Stones guitarist Brian Jones to Jajouka where he recorded the tribal musicians performing the Pipes of Pan It was Gysin who provided the hashish fudge recipe published in Alice B. Toklas cookbook promising ecstatic reveries and extensions of one's personality on several simultaneous planes It was Gysin who introduced Burroughs to an automatic writing method called the cut up a literary progenitor to sampling And it was Gysin who developed with Ian Sommerville the Dream Machine a device that allowed people with the flick of a switch to access altered states of consciousness without drugs Working with the authorization of Gysin's literary executor William S Burroughs John Geiger has produced the first ever biography of the painter poet piper Brion Gysin Sunsprites and Other Miracles David M. Leyva, 2006 How to Build a Museum Tonya Bolden, 2016-09-06 Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture is truly groundbreaking The first national museum whose mission is to illuminate for all people the rich diverse complicated and important experiences and contributions of African Americans in America is opening And the history of NMAAHC the last museum to be built on the National Mall is the history of America The campaign to set up a museum honoring black citizens is nearly 100 years old building the museum itself and assembling its incredibly far reaching collections is a modern story that involves all kinds of people from educators and activists to politicians architects curators construction workers and ordinary Americans who donated cherished belongings to be included in NMAAHC's thematically organized exhibits Award winning author Tonya Bolden has written a fascinating chronicle of how all of these ideas ambitions and actual objects came together in one incredible museum Includes behind the scenes photos of literally how to build a museum that holds everything from an entire segregated railroad car to a tiny West African amulet worn to ward off slave traders Academy Notes Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, 1907 Designing for the Museum Visitor Experience Tiina Roppola, 2013-03-05 Exhibition environments are enticingly complex spaces as facilitators of experience as free choice learning contexts as theaters of drama as encyclopedic warehouses of cultural and natural heritage as two three and four dimensional storytellers as sites for self actualizing leisure activity But how much do we really know about the moment by moment transactions that comprise the intricate experiences of visitors To strengthen the disciplinary knowledge base supporting exhibition design we must understand more about what goes on as people engage with the multifaceted communication environments that are contemporary exhibition spaces The in depth visitor centered research underlying this book offers nuanced understandings of the interface between visitors and exhibition environments Analysis of visitors meaning making accounts shows that the visitor experience is contingent upon four processes framing resonating channeling and broadening These processes are distinct yet mutually influencing Together they offer an evidence based conceptual framework for understanding visitors in exhibition spaces Museum educators designers interpreters curators researchers and evaluators will find this framework of value in both daily practice and future planning Designing for the Museum Visitor Experience provides museum professionals and academics with a fresh vocabulary for understanding what goes on as visitors wander around exhibitions Museum Development in China Gail Dexter Lord, Guan Qiang, An Laishun, Javier Jimenez, 2019-06-15 The growth of the number and scale of Chinese museums in the 21st century from about 1 400 at the turn of the century to over 5 000 to date reflects the government's Museum Development Plan for 2011 2020 to open one museum per 250 000 inhabitants with the goal of attracting one billion visitors at the end of the decade It is not just the numbers but the speed of development of Chinese museums that takes our breath away with nearly one new museum per day being opened or expanded in this huge country What are the motivations for the rapid development of museums in China How is the public responding Who pays for these museums and how What has been the impact of China's urbanization How do Chinese museums balance education scientific research social cohesion cultural diplomacy and tourism both internal and external These are issues that continue to be discussed and debated among western museum professionals in the context of our 200 year history of modern museology How are these debates evolving in China which has its own history of museology over that same period from colonialism to communism and from isolation to opening up to the world This book explores these issues while introducing English language readers to a sample of the new Chinese museums in case studies and photographs To accomplish this goal Lord Cultural Associates partnered with the Chinese Museums Association who engaged leading Chinese museologists museum directors academics and architects to provide chapters and case studies on the history of museums in China on evolving national museum policies museum exhibitions and cultural diplomacy the role of private museums and the impact of museums on society The four sections of this book build our knowledge of the roles of China's museums through social and political changes the systems of governance the complex relationships between private and public sectors and many levels of government Section One places the current building boom in context Section Two addresses how China's rapid urbanization has fueled the museum building boom framed it formed it and in some cases financed it Section Three analyzes how Chinese exhibitions are tools for cultural diplomacy and key elements of soft power The six case studies in Section Four provide perspectives on the diversity of innovative approaches in the sector Museum Development in China a beautiful full color book is the product of an international collaboration to discover how much East and West can learn from each other about museum roles our publics how we preserve what we conserve and our future sustainability even as we marvel at the accomplishments of China's museum building boom

Animal Alchemy Mark Roland Langdale, 2022-04-26 Jag short for Jaguar was orphaned when her environmentalist parents died in the jungle saving animals lives Although she was put into a care home she ran away two years to live on the streets where she was adopted into a street gang who have now become her family Danny the trickster and street magician and Tiger whose animal instincts run close to the surface and a few others are all animal activists at heart Although they go one night to an animal sanctuary in the country to tag the walls with graffiti Jag gets caught in an enclosure However it ends up for the best as the keeper takes a shine to her and offers a part time job when she hears Jag s affinity with the Jaguar spirit With Jag working at the sanctuary her gang start spending more time there to see the great Cat Man Do perform his animal magic until one day when a tiger is let out its cage And that is only the beginning as a villainous Cat Man begins to stalk the streets with two pet panthers out for blood seemingly appearing and disappearing at will With newspapers reporting maulings and deaths and Sergeant Dickins not sure what s going on the kids are intrigued by the reports After witnessing an attack the kids get sucked into this mysterious Cat Man s idea of a theatrical villain performance but even if they have animal instincts and spirits with them and even if the big cats are swaying to their side should they run before they too turn prey

Archaeological Displays and the Public Paulette M McManus,2016-06-16 This volume is a set of a dozen case studies of innovative programs designed to attract the public to both archaeological sites and exhibits of archaeological artifacts Papers deal with general issues of interpretation and presentation and cover British Australian European and American settings

The Contemporary Museum Simon Knell,2018-10-11 The Contemporary Museum issues a challenge to those who view the museum as an artefact of history constrained in its outlook as much by professional institutional and disciplinary creed as by the collections it accumulated in the distant past Denying that the museum can locate its purpose in the pursuit of tradition or in idealistic speculation about the future the book asserts that this can only be found through an ongoing and proactive negotiation with the present the contemporary This volume is not concerned with any present but with the peculiar circumstances of what it refers to as the global contemporary the sense of living in a globally connected world that is preoccupied with the contemporary To situate the museum in this world of real and immediate need and action beyond the reach of history the book argues is to empower it to challenge existing dogmas and inequalities and sweep aside old hierarchies As a result fundamental questions need to be asked about such things as the museum s relationship to global time and space to systems and technologies of knowing to the life well lived to the movement and rights of people and to the psychology permanence and organisation of culture Incorporating diverse viewpoints from around the world The Contemporary Museum is a follow up volume to Museum Revolutions and as such should be essential reading for students in the fields of museum and heritage studies cultural studies communication and media studies art history and social policy Academics and museum professionals will also find this book a source of inspiration
