Viability Sarah Vap, 2016-01-26 Selected as a Winner of the National Poetry Series by Mary Jo Bang Sarah Vap's sixth work of poetry Viability is an ambitious and highly imaginative collection of prose poems that braids together several kinds of language strands in an effort to understand and to ask questions about the bodies and minds maybe even souls that are owned by capitalism These threads of language include definitions from an online financial dictionary samples from an essay on the economics of slavery quotations from an article about slavery in today's Thai fishing industry lyric bits and pieces about pregnancy and infants of all kinds and a wealth of quotations falsely attributed to John of the Cross The viability that Vap is asking about is primarily economic and biological but not only The questions of viability become entwined with the need across the book to increase in both a capitalist and a gestational sense John of the Cross tries at first with composure to comment on or to mediate between all the different strands of the collection How Not to Rob a Bank C.J. Williams, 2022-11-10 During his 20 year career as a federal prosecutor the author worked hundreds of criminal cases from a botched attempted bank robbery to high profile death penalty cases In this collection of stories the author recounts tales of trauma drama and criminal minds While many prosecutors might share their reflections on the details and operations of legal proceedings the author instead focuses this collection on the human aspects of the criminals and their trials The book ruminates on human nature contemplating the motivations of the featured criminals and assessing the impact their crimes had on victims family members and others Some of the stories are light hearted and humorous while others are heartbreaking but all provide unique and compelling insight into the all too human world of federal crime

The White Knight: Tirant lo Blanc Joanot Martorell, 2024-12-20 The White Knight Tirant lo Blanc is a remarkable exploration of chivalry love and the complexities of human ambition Written by Joanot Martorell and Mart Joan de Galba this seminal work blends elements of romance and realism to critique the ideals of medieval knighthood The story follows Tirant a knight of extraordinary skill and virtue as he navigates battles courtly love and political intrigues offering a vivid portrayal of both the heroism and the vulnerabilities of its characters From its publication Tirant lo Blanc has been celebrated for its innovative approach to the chivalric tradition Rather than depicting an idealized hero it presents a protagonist marked by both triumphs and human flaws bridging the gap between legend and reality The work's intricate narrative structure and its nuanced portrayal of themes such as love loyalty and the pursuit of glory have inspired numerous adaptations and remain influential in the study of medieval literature The enduring relevance of Tirant lo Blanc lies in its capacity to question the ideals it portrays By delving into the struggles of its characters it offers a timeless commentary on the aspirations and limitations of human nature The novel continues to resonate with modern readers not only as a cornerstone of Catalan literature but also
