The Standard Reference Work, for the Home, School and Library ... ,1927 Support for Home Education Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee,2012-12-18 This report supports the right of parents to educate their children at home and accept that home educating families should bear the costs of that provision It is not reasonable however that it should be so difficult to access an exam centre nor that families should pay exam costs on top of everything else Home educators and local authorities LAs have since the Badman Review and its aftermath in 2009 made real efforts to engage and to ensure more constructive relationships and better support but there is clearly some way to go In particular the Committee notes the postcode lottery element of current provision for home educators with different LAs offering starkly different services and patterns of support It calls on the Department for Education to conduct an audit review the home education guidance given to LAs and to support pilots for local offers of support being published The Committee is also concerned that provisions for home educated young people with SEN are not being fully met
