The Complete Short Novels of Anton Chekhov Anton Chekhov, 2004-08-03 Anton Chekhov widely hailed as the supreme master of the short story also wrote five works long enough to be called short novels here brought together in one volume for the first time in a masterly new translation by the award winning translators Richard Pevear and Larissa Volokhonsky The Steppe the most lyrical of the five is an account of a nine year old boy s frightening journey by wagon train across the steppe of southern Russia The Duel sets two decadent figures a fanatical rationalist and a man of literary sensibility on a collision course that ends in a series of surprising reversals In The Story of an Unknown Man a political radical spying on an important official by serving as valet to his son gradually discovers that his own terminal illness has changed his long held priorities in startling ways Three Years recounts a complex series of ironies in the personal life of a rich but passive Moscow merchant In My Life a man renounces wealth and social position for a life of manual labor The resulting conflict between the moral simplicity of his ideals and the complex realities of human nature culminates in a brief apocalyptic vision that is unique in Chekhov s work The British Short Story Emma Liggins, Andrew Maunder, Ruth Robbins, 2017-09-16 The short story remains a crucial if neglected part of British literary heritage This accessible and up to date critical overview maps out the main strands and figures that shaped the British short story and novella from the 1850s to the present It offers new readings of both classic and forgotten texts in a clear jargon free way The Complete Short Fiction of Joseph Conrad: The stories Joseph Conrad, 1991 Collects Conrad's short stories and tales with a chronology and the author's own notes on his shorter fiction Collected Short Fiction of V. tales in A Flag on the Island meanwhile roam from a Chinese bakery in Trinidad to a rooming house in London And in the celebrated title story from the Booker Prize winning In a Free State an English couple traveling in an unnamed African country discover under a veneer of civilization a landscape of squalor and ethnic bloodletting No writer has rendered our postcolonial world more acutely or prophetically than V S Naipaul or given its upheavals such a hauntingly human face brow publications and single author collections as well as anthologies were regularly published Exploring the form s techniques and themes Andrew Kahn considers the continuity and variation in key structures and techniques such as the beginning the creation of voice the ironic turn or plot twist and how writers manage endings Throughout he draws on examples from an international and flourishing corpus of work with close analysis of classic and lesser known stories by American Canadian Irish Australian Russian and French masters such as James Baldwin Grace Paley Alice Munro Elizabeth Taylor William Trevor Helen Garner Chekhov and Guy de Maupassant Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

The Penguin Book of First World War Stories Ann-Marie Einhaus, Barbara Korte, 2007-10-25 An anthology of Great War short stories by British writers both famous and lesser known authors men and women during the war and after its end These stories are able to illustrate the impact of the Great War on British society and culture and the many modes in which short fiction contributed to the war s literature The selection covers different periods the war years themselves the famous boom years of the late 1920s to the more recent past in which the First World War has received new cultural interest The Inheritors Joseph Conrad, Ford Madox Ford, 1999 This novel one of two collaborations between Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford is one of the earliest to be concerned with modern mechanical culture and as such foreshadowed other writers such as George Orwell and Aldous Huxley Symbolising the collapse of old treasured political values at the turn of the century and underlining the urgency of renovation the novel involves the unrequited love for a young woman of Arthur Granger an aristocratic and unsuccessful novelist Granger betrays the ideals on which he prides himself for this woman a nameless ethereal and goddess like agent from a strange world The collaboration between Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford influenced their own independent work and in the words of Ezra Pound What Flaubert had done to change French prose Conrad and Ford did to transform English prose Touché John Leigh, 2015-06-08 Many of the West's best writers fought in duels or wrote about them seduced by glamour or risk or recklessness A gift as a plot device the duel also offered a way to discover how we face fears of humiliation pain and death John Leigh's literary history of the duel illuminates these and other tensions attending the birth of the modern world The Valley of the Moon Jack London, 1914 Words and Images on the Screen Ágnes Pethő, 2009-03-26 The screen has never been merely a canvas for the images to be displayed but also to quote Jean Luc Godard a blank page a surface for inscriptions and a stage for all kinds of linguistic occurrences be their audible or visual Word did not come into the world of cinema at the time of the talkies but has been a primordial medial companion that has shaped the cinematic experience from its very beginnings This volume offers a collection of essays that question the role of words and images in the context of moving pictures covering a wide area of their interconnectedness How can we analyse
