Excerpt from The Confederate Congress May 1864 The changes in this compared with the preceding congress were remarkable and significant The new Senators were Richard W Walker from Alabama Augustus H Garland Arkansas John W C Watson Mississippi and W A Graham from North Carolina The changes in the House were so numerous as almost to amount to a new congress Georgia led in this change returning nine new out of its ten members North Carolina came next with seven out of ten Texas four out of Six etc It was remarkable that but few changes were made in the delegations from Kentucky and Missouri The seven new Representatives from North Carolina were James T Leach Josiah Turner Jr John A Gilmer James M Leach George W Logan James G Ramsay and Thomas C Fuller Of these Gilmer and J M Leach had been members of the United States Congress the others had some legislative experience with the exception I believe of Messrs Logan and Fuller R M T Hunter of Virginia was elected President pro tern Of the Senate and Thomas S Bocock also of Virginia was again elected Speaker of the House having occupied that position in the preceding congress The outlook of the Confederacy at this time was gloomy and discouraging Furious and unrelenting war had raged for more than three years Lincoln had called out eight hundred thousand men at a cost of nearly three thousand million dollars and was preparing to call for as many more men at even a greater outlay of money The Mississippi river was in his possession from mouth to source thus cutting the Confederacy in twain The whole Atlantic and Gulf coast with the exception of the ports of Charleston Savannah and Mobile which were closely blockaded were in the possession of the enemy Albert Sydney Johnston and Stonewall Jackson had fallen the one in the hour of defeat the other in the hour of victory while hundreds of other leaders the pride and hope of the country with thousands of the rank and file of the army had fallen on bloody fields of strife The gallant Lee had retired from Maryland and Pennsylvania after the terrible conflicts of Antietam and Gettysburg Grant with more than a hundred thousand veterans was entering the Wilderness to be held at bay by Lee with less than half that number and Sherman with an army nearly equal to Grant's was bearing down upon Johnston who stood at Dalton with fifty five thousand to dispute his march to the sea About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
