The Contracted World New More Selected Poems:

The Contracted World Peter Meinke, 2006-01-29 The Contracted World includes representative poems from four of Peter Meinke's previous collections. In poems that show us what it is like to grow up in America, love, nature, cities, sports, war, and peace are filtered through the imagination and verbal skills of one of our brightest poets. The new poems experiment with form and address a life that is shrinking in specific ways: the poet is aging, the world is getting smaller, our post 9/11 freedoms are eroding, and our choices seem fewer and less attractive. Despite feelings of anger and loneliness, the narrator speaks to us in a personal, accessible, and often humorous voice.

The Publishers Weekly, 1879 Poetry, 2006 Poets & Writers, 2006 Selected Poetry and Prose Samuel Johnson, 1977 Traveling Texts and the Work of Afro-Japanese Cultural Production William H. Bridges IV, Nina Cornyetz, 2015-06-24 Traveling Texts and the Work of Afro-Japanese Cultural Production analyzes the complex conversations taking place in texts of all sorts traveling between Africans, African Diasporas, and Japanese across disciplinary, geographic, racial, ethnic, linguistic, and cultural borders. Be it focused on the make-up of the blackface ganguro or the haiku of Richard Wright, Rastafari communities in Japan, or the black enka singer Jero, the volume turns its attention away from questions of representation to ones concerning the generative aspects of transcultural production. The contributors are interested primarily in texts in motion, the contradictory motion within texts, the traveling of texts, and the action that such kinetic energy inspires in readers, viewers, listeners, and travelers. As our texts travel and travail, the originary nodal points that anchor them to set significations loosen and are transformed; the essays trace how, in the process of traveling, the bodies and subjectivities of those working to reimagine the texts in new sites moderate, accommodate, and transfigure both the texts and themselves.

ideals with Romantic sensibilities characterized by a profound exploration of individualism and nature. The collection includes seminal works such as Faust, which delves into the human condition through a Faustian bargain, and his lesser-known poetic and autobiographical writings that reveal his philosophical contemplations on life, love, and art. Goethe's lyrical prowess and narrative innovation make this collection an essential study of literary evolution and cultural commentary in Western literature. As a pivotal figure of the Sturm und Drang movement and later a key player in the Weimar Classicism literary era, Goethe's life experiences greatly informed his writing. Born in 1749 in Frankfurt, he was a polymath whose pursuits spanned art, science, and politics. His engagement with the contemporary intellectual currents of his time undoubtedly shaped his thematic choices, encouraging readers to confront existential dilemmas and embrace the complexities of human experience. This comprehensive collection is highly recommended for both scholars and general readers alike, as it invites a deep engagement with Goethe's literary artistry and philosophical inquiries. Readers will find themselves captivated by the rich emotional depth and intellectual rigor present in these works, gaining invaluable insights into the fabric of human existence through Goethe's nuanced lens.
