Gerald Vizenor is one of our era's most important and prolific Native American writers. Drawing on the best work of an acclaimed career, Shadow Distance: A Gerald Vizenor Reader reveals the wide range of his imagination and the evolution of his central themes. This compelling collection includes not only selections from Vizenor's innovative fiction but also poetry, autobiography, essays, journalism, and the previously unpublished screenplay Harold of Orange, winner of the Film in the Cities national screenwriting competition. Whether focusing on Native American tricksters or legal and financial claims of tribal sovereignty, Vizenor continually underscores the diversities of modern traditions, the mixed ethnicity that characterizes those who claim Native American origin, and cultural permeability of an increasingly commercial global world.

Mimesis and Alterity Michael Taussig, 2018-05-30 In this ambitious and accomplished work, Taussig explores the complex and interwoven concepts of mimesis, the practice of imitation, and alterity, the opposition of Self and Other. The book moves from the nineteenth-century invention of mimetically capacious machines such as the camera to the fable of colonial first contact and the alleged mimetic power of primitives. Twenty years after the original publication, Taussig revisits the work in a new preface.

which contextualises the impact of Mimesis and Alterity Drawing on the ideas of Benjamin Adorno and Horckheimer and ethnographic accounts of the Cuna Taussig demonstrates how the history of mimesis is deeply tied to colonialism and the idea of alterity has become increasingly unstable Vigorous and unorthodox this cross cultural discussion continues to deepen our understanding of the relationship between ethnography racism and society The Creative Therapist Bradford Keeney,2010-04-15 In The Creative Therapist Bradford Keeney makes the case that creativity is the most essential aspect of vibrant meaningful and successful therapy No matter what therapeutic orientation one practices it must be awakened by creativity in order for the session to come alive This book presents a theoretical framework that provides an understanding of how to go outside habituated ways of therapy in order to bring forth new and innovative possibilities A basic structure for creative therapy based on the outline of a three part theatrical play is also set forth With these frameworks practical guidelines detail how to initiate and implement creative contributions to any therapeutic situation Dreams of Fiery Stars Catherine Rainwater,2010-08-03 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book for 1999 Since the 1968 publication of N Scott Momaday s House Made of Dawn a new generation of Native American storytellers has chosen writing over oral traditions While their works have found an audience by observing many of the conventions of the mainstream novel Native American written narrative has emerged as something distinct from the postmodern novel with which it is often compared In Dreams of Fiery Stars Catherine Rainwater examines the novels of writers such as Momaday Linda Hogan Leslie Marmon Silko Gerald Vizenor and Louise Erdrich and contends that the very act of writing narrative imposes constraints upon these authors that are foreign to Native American tradition Their works amount to a break with and a transformation of American Indian storytelling The book focuses on the agenda of social and cultural regeneration encoded in contemporary Native American narrative and addresses key questions about how these works achieve their overtly stated political and revisionary aims Rainwater explores the ways in which the writers create readers who understand the connection between storytelling and personal and social transformation considers how contemporary Native American narrative rewrites Western notions of space and time examines the existence of intertextual connections between Native American works and looks at the vital role of Native American literature in mainstream society today Caring for Patients from Different Cultures Geri-Ann Galanti,2004 Includes information on African American culture anglo American culture Arab cultures Asian cultures Chinese cultures Filipino culture Gypsy culture Hispanic cultures Hmong culture Iranian culture Islam Japanese culture Jewish culture Judaism Korean culture Mexican culture Middle Eastern cultures Native American cultures Navaho culture Nigerian culture Vietnamese culture etc Second Lives Ralph B.
