somewhat lagged behind For example critical tourism researchers have been examining postcolonialism for two decades but dark tourism research has only sporadically engaged with this topic Similarly the issue of gender has been curiously neglected within dark tourism In addition dark tourism research has tended to shy away from the big challenges facing contemporary societies Through its engagement with a range of critical theories this volume not only addresses gaps in the existing dark tourism literature but also moves the debate forward in exciting new directions This volume is well placed to demonstrate to other disciplines and fields that dark tourism research can be critical theoretically grounded and transformative Duncan Light      Seventy Moral (and Immoral) Polarities of the Everyday Volume II Frederic Will, 2017-01-06 Like its companion Seventy Moral and Immoral Polarities of the Everyday 2016 this volume is a set of seventy mini meditations on opposite states of the moral or emotional life goodness and badness ugly and beautiful quiet and raucous Each item in each polarity is allowed to gather up a picture a tale or a logical adventure and then to leave behind it multi part reflections which play out in the reader s mind The operational energy here is partly prayer or mantra and partly half completed logical conundrum Is there a new form of private devotional at work here      The House of Raby; Or, Our Lady of Darkness afterwards HOOPER WINNARD (Jane Margaret), 1874      The House of Raby, Or, Our Lady of Darkness Jane Margaret (Winnard) Hooper ("Mrs. George Hooper."), 1884      Dawn of the Awakened Mind John Sumpter King, 1920
