

A photograph of a Dartmouth College campus scene. On the left, a tall, multi-tiered clock tower with a dark spire rises above a brick building. In the foreground, several large, leafy green trees are visible. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The text 'ONLY AT DARTMOUTH:' is positioned at the top left, above the main title. The main title 'Financial Aid & Full Access to the Dartmouth Experience' is in large, bold, white letters. The Dartmouth College logo, a stylized 'D' with a pine tree inside, is located in the bottom right corner.

Dartmouth Experience John S. Dickey,1977-11-01 Through Grateful Eyes: the Peace Corps Experiences of Dartmouth's Class of 1967 Charles A. Hobbie,2022-07-07 As the 1967 graduates of Dartmouth College received their diplomas not many of them envisioned spending several years overseas in the underdeveloped world living and working amid unimaginable disease extreme poverty and other hardships But an extraordinary number of class members from the remote college in New Hampshire's mountains subsequently accepted invitations to journey to twenty four different countries to live work learn socialize subsist and grow with families in their host countries They were Peace Corps volunteers and their mission was to promote world peace and friendship in programs of agriculture conservation education forestry health hydrology law marketing engineering rural development urban development and tourism These volunteers were among the more than 650 graduates of the small but historic ivy league institution in the upper Connecticut river valley who have responded over the past sixty years to President John F Kennedy's challenge to help their country and the world Peace Corps national headquarters has described Dartmouth's cooperation with the Corps as unsurpassed This book features their incredible stories compellingly describing what nineteen of them and five spouses did how they lived whom they met what they learned and how they were challenged and changed by their experiences The Best Northeastern Colleges, 2011 Edition Robert Franek,2010-08-10 Vols for 2006 edited by Robert Franek The Best 368 Colleges 2009 Robert Franek,Princeton Review,Tom Meltzer,Christopher Maier,2008-07-29 A survey of life on the nation's campuses offers detailed profiles of the best colleges and rankings of colleges in sixty two different categories along with a wealth of information and applications tips Follow Your Interests to Find the Right College Janet,Paul Marthers,2015-11-23 Follow Your Interests to Find the Right College is a different sort of college guide one that helps students and their families better understand the vast amount of options available for college based on a student's interests Topics in this comprehensive easy to understand guide include but are not limited to the argument for liberal arts college degrees programs in Canada UK Australia and beyond art and architecture programs business equine related opportunities engineering health care majors Ivy League benefits of public liberal arts colleges and university honors programs armed service academies environmentally oriented colleges and programs faith based colleges And much more Students parents and college advisers will appreciate the vast amount of information presented and synthesized in this user friendly format Even the most college savvy reader can turn to the well researched thoughtful chapters on almost every academic or social area as well as advice on broader college related topics such as financing college and advice for home schooled students By providing and interpreting vast amounts of data not collectively available online or in other guidebooks each chapter provides both an overview and fine detail for a wide variety of subjects Using this book as a starting point parents and advisers can quickly increase their knowledge in a given area and be ready to help students explore options with confidence while also making the best use of their time Once you know what you want in a college you can evaluate the best way from an admissions strategy to get there Until you know what you want however it doesn't make sense to jump into the application game Your admissions plan could be very different from your friends based on what you actually want to get out of your college experience Knowing the options and figuring out the best ones for you will make you your child or your student a smarter more strategic and more confident college applicant

Secondary English Teacher Education in the United States Donna L. Pasternak, Samantha Caughlan, Heidi L.

Hallman, Laura Renzi, Leslie S. Rush, 2017-12-14 Winner of the ELATE Richard A Meade Award 2018 Identifying key areas of teacher education that cross countries and disciplines this book provides the first extensive research based insight into how secondary English teachers are prepared at institutions of higher education in the United States of America US since the last major study in 1995 In the two decades since then English teacher education programs have developed in contextually dependent ways that often have been driven by institutional economic social and political considerations The authors provide an overview of their nationwide study of English teacher educators which was conducted over a four year period They analyze the context under which teacher educators currently prepare pre service English teachers in the US and support teacher educators in other countries to make comparisons to their own unique historical and cultural settings The authors also offer a comprehensive evaluation of the content practices and skills being taught to future teachers of English in university based teacher preparation programs in the US The book draws on evidence from a nationwide questionnaire case studies of teacher educators in their respective programs course syllabi and focus group interviews to focus on areas of instruction that resonate with teacher educators in countries where English is the dominant language of communication These areas include field experiences standards and assessment teaching literacy to integrate reading and writing working with English language learners to address cultural and linguistic diversity new technologies in English education

Caroline and Papa Ronald B. Schram, 2008-11 I had the career of a lifetime I was a teacher I began my teaching career believing that one person could make a difference and throughout the years I never lost sight of that conviction Teaching connected me to my students in ways quite humorous as well as heart breaking I hope the reader laughs a lot and cries only a little while walking in my footsteps as an educator Laugh with me as you read about Fred the crusty cockroach we set free to find his wife and eighty seven children In addition there is always my favorite story about the scary monster under the bed holding a student's homework hostage I fed a rooster and his hens bread crumbs for breakfast each morning until they tried to follow me in single file into the school board building one day Some difficult students in summer school mistakenly believed my black patent leather belt to be a black belt in Karate Who was I to tell them differently Coming right on top of the laughs were the times I went home to cry I remember the student new to our school who went home one evening and hung himself his cries for help coming too late I remember with equal sadness the foster child we sponsored in Kenya who died because help did not reach him in time Closer to home was the overage student who was shot and killed while he participated in a home invasion just days after he finished summer school Outside factors reached inside our classroom as well reeking havoc with the emotions of both the children and me The disastrous space shuttle with the teacher on board happened before our very eyes while the greatest tragedy of all was the destruction of the twin towers on 9 11 These stories and many more comprise my educational career and although there was no easy button I would do it all over again I was a teacher

Making, Keeping, and Losing Friends Janice M. McCabe,2025-10-21 Draws attention to the importance of support networks for students as they make keep and lose friends throughout college and beyond We re all familiar with the sentiment that college is the best time of your life Along with a newfound sense of freedom students have a unique opportunity to forge lifelong friendships at a point in life when friendship is particularly important Why is it then that so many college students are falling victim to what the US Surgeon General termed an epidemic of loneliness and isolation How do different aspects of college life help or hinder students ability to form deep connections In Making Keeping and Losing Friends How Campuses Shape College Students Networks sociologist Janice M McCabe shows that the way a college is structured whether students live in dorms or commute study abroad or stay close to campus have plentiful common areas for clubs to meet or not can either encourage or hinder the making of meaningful friendships Based on interviews with 95 students on three distinct campuses a small private college Dartmouth College a large public university University of New Hampshire and a non residential community college Manchester Community College McCabe captures a wide range of experiences and discovers how features of the campuses make it easier or harder for students to make and keep friends She shows how and why across all three institutions some students thrive in deep and lasting friendships with their peers As McCabe s research reveals we need to look at the structures of students networks the institutions they attend and the importance of their identities in these places if we are to truly uncover and address the loneliness epidemic facing today s young adults

Patients' Lived Experiences During the Transplant and Cellular Therapy Journey Jean Coffey,John M. Hill Jr.,Thomas Long,Elizabeth B. McGrath,2023-08-24 The book was envisioned by bedside nurses caring for transplant and cellular therapy patients as a way to teach novice nurses and health care colleagues about the care required for this complex patient population The nurse authors recruited an oncology nurse practitioner transplant physician nurse scientist and expert in medical humanities and health studies to join the project team The dedication of the team and the willingness of the patients to contribute to the project has led to a unique case study approach focused on the lived experience of patients and care partner s during the transplant cellular therapy journey The case studies are unique in that they encompass a qualitative narrative developed using Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis IPA and the inclusion of the individual s actual medical and nursing care from their health record At every step along the trajectory of the illness the medications and care received are described interspersed with the voice of the patient and care partner s sharing their experiences The chapters follow the individual patients and their care partner s through all phases of their illness The interviews were conducted and case studies written by the bedside clinical nurses Visual art and prose created by patients and care partner s s are included in the chapters The book also includes an introduction written by the nurse authors a methods chapter on the inclusion of IPA in a case study and poignant epilogue The premise of nursing support for survivorship is woven throughout the book highlighting how giving back aids in recovery identity This book full of beautiful artworks and poems is the work of clinical nurses devoted to improving care for their patients by sharing the patient stories with others It introduces a unique approach to the case study which could be replicated and applied to any diagnosis

Uncommon People I Have Known Frank P. Sherwood, 2013-09-04 The title and subtitle say a great deal about the character of this book These are stories about people who inevitably stand out in a crowd for their personal attributes their ethical standards the ways in which they have coped with great problems and their remarkable achievements Significantly fourteen of the sixteen stories in this book are about people who have in some way contributed to better government Several have worked directly in government others have been teachers and still others have found ways to make contributions Not all the stories are about people in the U S The two stories from Brazil involve people who stayed at home and did their good work there in the other two instances already blossoming careers at home were ended by extreme governmental changes In all cases however these are people who must be admired for their extreme dedication to the highest ideals of service In effect this book can be considered a primer on government that works The two whose stories did not directly concern government contributed mightily to a better society One was a highly productive author who in later years concentrated on children s books and wrote more than 50 of them The other pioneered a wholly different journalistic undertaking the city regional magazine Today these publications are found throughout the country and are distinguished by their design quality and their commitment to the communities they serve
