Religion and the American Civil War Randall M. Miller, Harry S. Stout, Charles Reagan Wilson, 1998 The authors show that religion understood in its broadest context as a culture and community of faith was found wherever the war was found in the armies and the hospitals on the plantations and in the households among all conditions of men and women white and black Cover Hunting the Wren Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence, 1997 A unique interdisciplinary study this book examines the British and European tradition of the wren hunt in which a bird ordinarily revered and protected for most of the year was killed around the time of the annual solstice In focusing on this ancient ritual Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence draws on her training in cultural anthropology and biology to cast a fresh light on the complexities of human animal relationships Following an introductory chapter on animal symbolism Lawrence proceeds in subsequent chapters to describe the wren both as a biological entity and as the subject of numerous tales and legends to delineate the details of the wren hunt ceremony and the various meanings ascribed to it and finally to relate the ceremony to important contemporary issues in human animal interactions and current attitudes toward the living environment Whereas most other studies tend to concentrate solely on human perceptions of animals and fail to include the animal's role in the relationship Lawrence's approach shows how the participation of both animal and human determines the symbolic status of the animal which in turn influences the treatment of that animal within a particular society At a time when human destructiveness toward nature has reached tragic proportions Lawrence contends it is critical that we understand the processes by which certain cultural beliefs in combination with observations about the natural history of a particular animal result in emotional and mental responses that may ultimately determine the fate of that species The author argues persuasively that the wren hunt with its ancient roots associated beliefs and complex meanings in the preindustrialized world still has much to teach us Anderson Co, KY ,1991-07-01 From the foreword This Family History of Anderson County preserves the proud heritage of our county and communities as well as many of our churches businesses organizations and families Our intent is to record a picture of the people organizations and activities for future generations The Delta of Sigma Nu ,1996 The History of the Puritans, Or, Protestant Non-conformists, from the Death of Queen Elizabeth to the Beginning of the Civil War in the Year 1642: From the death of King Charles I. to the Act of Toleration by King William and Queen Mary, in the year 1689 Daniel Neal,1738 Youssef Chahine Ibrahim Fawal,2019-07-25 A discussion of the frequently controversial film maker Youssef Chahine The book aims to illuminate Chahine's work in the context of modern Egyptian culture and its tumultuous post war history and how such films as Cairo Station 1958 The Earth 1959 and The Sparrow 1973 dramatized the dilemmas of ordinary Egyptians He also argues that Chahine's intensely autobiographical trilogy Alexandria Why 1978 An Egyptian Story 1985 and Alexandria More and More 1989 spoke to the concerns of the broader Egyptian intelligentsia amongst whom he has earned the reputation of being the poet and thinker of modern Arab cinema The final analysis of the book argues that Chahine's work stands comparison with directors such as Fellini Bergman Kurosawa or Sembene but also emphatically draws strength from its links with one of the most vibrant popular cinemas of the world and from the roots and traditions of popular Arabic culture The Christian Advocate ,1912 Placenames of the Civil War John D. Bennett,2017-02-10 Despite the plethora of books about the Civil War the origins of many of the placenames associated with the conflict remain a mystery This gazetteer provides information on nearly 1600 sites including not only locations of battles and skirmishes but also hospitals prison camps military academies factories and navy yards both North and South Also listed
