remains a necessary activity occupying several joyous hours of every day I like novels essays and biographies but most of all I like the short story narrative at its most confiding My own work and particularly the stories in Vaquita aims at a similar intimacy between writer and reader My imagined reader wants to know who loves whom who drinks what and mostly who answers to what summons Thank Heavens for Spike Lee Before his movies writers and critics had to natter about moral stances now I can say with a more tripping tongue that my characters are people in peculiar circumstances aching to Do The Right Thing if only they can figure out what The Right Thing is If not they ll at least Do Their Own Right Thing Right And I m drawn to heat sweltering Central American cities a steamy soup kitchen Jerusalem in midsummer the rekindled passion of an old historian the steady fire of terminal pain I like solitaires oddities charlatans and children My characters are secretive in almost every story somebody harbors a hidden love dread regret or the memory of an insult awaiting revenge When I stop writing stories I plan to write letters short and then shorter My mother could put three sentences onto a postcard and make the recipient think he d read a novel I m working towards a similar compression
