The Decline And Fall Of Science:

Handbook of Parapsychology Benjamin B. Wolman, 1986 The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon, 1890 The Decline of Therapeutic Bloodletting and the Collapse of Traditional Medicine K. Codell Carter, 2012-08-14

Over the course of a single generation without significant discussion or debate a key practice of traditional medicine was almost completely abandoned in mid nineteenth century Europe K Codell Carter s book describes how and why bloodletting was abandoned noting that it was part of a process in which innovation was required so that modern scientific medicine could begin This book is a masterful study on the collapse of a traditional medical practice Bloodletting had been a prominent medical therapy in early nineteenth century Europe and can be traced back to Greek and Roman physicians The Hippocratic corpus contains several discussions of bloodletting Galen the most famous physician in classical antiquity wrote tracts explaining and defending the practice It was employed in ancient Egypt and is the most commonly mentioned therapy in the Babylonian Talmud Indeed it was practiced in virtually every part of the ancient world Even though the practice abruptly ceased there was little argument against it or reason to believe it ineffective In reality bloodletting actually worked However the rise of modern medicine required not just a change in how disease and causation were conceived but also a change in the role of medicine in society It has been claimed that the collapse of traditional medicine was a precondition for the rise of modern medicine but there has been little support for this assertion before now Carter provides this missing support The result is a fascinating study in the history of medical practice and social expectations

The Nature of the Machine and the Collapse of Cybernetics Alcibiades Malapi-Nelson, 2017-07-03 This book is a philosophical exploration of the theoretical causes behind the collapse of classical cybernetics as well as the lesson that this episode can provide to current emergent technologies Alcibiades Malapi Nelson advances the idea that the cybernetic understanding of the nature of a machine entails ontological and epistemological consequences that created both material and theoretical conundrums However he proposes that given our current state of materials research scientific practices and research tools there might be a way for cybernetics to flourish this time The book starts with a historical and theoretical articulation of cybernetics in order to proceed with a philosophical explanation of its collapse emphasizing the work of Alan Turing Ross Ashby and John von Neumann Subsequently Malapi Nelson unveils the common metaphysical signature shared between cybernetics and emergent technologies identifying this signature as transhumanist in nature Finally avenues of research that may allow these disruptive technologies to circumvent the cybernetic fate are indicated It is proposed that emerging technologies ultimately entail an affirmation of humanity The Popular Science Monthly , 1895

Rituals, Collapse, and Radical Transformation in Archaic States Joanne M.A. Murphy, 2020-09-29 Rituals Collapse and Radical Transformation in Archaic States explores the role of ritual in a variety of archaic states and generates discussion on how the decline in a state s ability to continue in its current form affected the practices of ritual and how ritual

as a culture forming dynamic affected decline collapse and regeneration of the state Chapters examine ritual in collapsing and regenerating archaic states from diverse locations time periods and societies including Crete Mycenaean and Byzantine Greece Mesopotamia India Africa Mexico and Peru Underscoring similarities in a variety of archaic states in the role of ritual during periods of threat collapse and transformation the volume shows how ritual can be used as a stabilizing or divisive force or a connecting medium between the present to the past in an empowering way It also highlights the diversity of ritual roles and location in similar situations and illustrates how states in close proximity and sharing many cultural similarities can respond differently through ritual to stress and contrast the different response in rural and urban settings Through detailed cultural specific studies the book provides a nuanced understanding of the diverse roles of ritual in the decline collapse and regeneration of societies and will be important for all archaeologists involved in the important notions of state collapse and regeneration
