Power and Resistance, 7th ed. Jessica Antony, Wayne Antony, 2022-06-30T00:00:00Z Power and Resistance debunks the dominant neoliberal hyper individualist approach to society's problems that sees poverty as a result of laziness environmental crises as a result of market demands for products that pollute and Indigenous Peoples struggles as a result of not assimilating We argue that it is social inequality and oppression that are the underlying causes of social problems In a society like ours powerful groups make choices that benefit them and force those choices onto others creating life problems for others and society as a whole The powerful also have influence over what is and is not called a social problem Solving social problems requires changing the structures of inequality and oppression For example industrial corporate agriculture has created huge profits for a few gigantic food corporations but left much of the world hungry But farmers and their allies are pushing back through agroecology an agriculture based on local small scale ecologically sustainable farming that brings eaters and growers closer to one another The seventh edition of Power and Resistance includes new chapters on anti Black racism in schools Indigenous people and mental health food security and sovereignty and work in the gig economy

Peterson, 2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p dualisms the welfare versus the warfare state the agency of both social integration and exploitation and public versus private institutions The editors aim to distinguish true from false dualisms Myths in modern society are important as they enables whites to dominate blacks men to dominate women warplanners to dominate peacemakers the rich to dominate the poor The editors consider the myth that the state and the market are separate the state as a single monolithic structure and that we can all identify and share in a national interest The crisis of the state is the third major theme The state is in crisis because we have no fully developed theory of the state because its welfare and warfare functions are undergoing profound change The essays are all written from the point of view of radical institutionalism and emphasise the need for increased participation in the policymaking and policy evaluating processes of the state

Imagining Childhood, Improving Children Catriona Ellis, 2023-08-24 From as early as the 1920s state policy towards children in South India was framed through the lens of a universal ideal of modern childhood This reflected the participation of policy makers and civil society activists in global discourses of child saving and the new opportunities of governance under the constitutional reforms of 1919 Children became viewed as both objects to be saved and investments as future citizens The book considers how adults used this concept of universal childhood to conceptualise themselves as both modern and avuncular gaining authority through an appropriation of familial terms as well as the claim to modern scientific expertise Through a detailed study of education health and juvenile justice the book reveals that the implementation of policy was still informed by other markers of difference and contrasts adult intentions with the autobiographical memories of school family and peer relationships
